*Christ is alive! Let Christians sing.
His cross stands empty to the sky.
Let streets and homes with praises ring.
His love in death shall never die. (Hymn 260)*

The Dean Writes:

Dear Parishioners,

After the long months of winter, it is wonderful to see longer and brighter days and everything suddenly springing back to life, much helped by the increasing warmth of the days. As Winter turns to Spring and Lent gives way to Easter, so we celebrate a 'turning-point,' not only in the natural world, but in our spiritual journey. Amidst all the new growth, there is God and His call again to new and revitalised life!

The message of Easter is that there is a new creation at work among us. A new creation, full of beauty and hope, where previously there has been darkness and despair. It is not only a new creation full of hope but full of love as well, and it is here that we are able to understand the wondrous exchange which takes place on that first Easter morning between Jesus and Mary Magdalene at the tomb, when she imagines him to be the gardener. Jesus calls her tenderly and gently by her name. There is a moment of recognition, and he commissions her to tell the other disciples, that in him and in the events now taking place, a new dawn is quite literally breaking through. The Risen Christ is freed from the darkness of death and he walks in the sunshine of a garden. He emerges from the tomb and the awe and beauty of that moment will generate new possibilities and new delights - new forms of life for all people everywhere! Perhaps like Mary Magdalene, we need a voice and touch; we need the kindness and the companionship of others -

- but most of all, we need the assurance of the Easter message.

The Easter Resurrection, and the message it brings, conquers hopelessness. It gives you hope, purpose and meaning. It gives you a reason to live. Therefore, do not settle for another nice little Easter – accept the challenge. If you are a regular attender at church that is a good start, however if you are irregular or have not been for a while pick up that challenge and join a vibrant band of worshippers in the Cathedral on a Sunday morning. In recent years our Cathedral has had a major transformation so may the lives of all our parishioners be transformed too as we meet in beautiful surroundings. Then as we experience this beauty may we also experience the beauty of a new beginning– experience the life, hope, and faith that the Risen Christ brings – experience the Lord's presence as He walks with us along the pathway of life!

The Easter Collect sums it all up:

Almighty God through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ you have overcome death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that, as by your grace going before us you put into our minds good desires, so by your continual help we may bring them to good effect; through Jesus Christ our risen Lord who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Yours very sincerely,

Kenneth R J Hall

Lent and Holy Week

13th April – Palm Sunday:

Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday, when the Church remembers how Jesus arrived at the gates of Jerusalem just a few days before the Passover was due to be held. He was the Messiah come to his own people in their capital city, and yet he came in humility, riding on a young donkey, not in triumph, riding on a war-horse. As Jesus entered the city, the crowds gave him a rapturous welcome, throwing palm branches into his path. They knew his reputation as a healer, and welcomed him. Sadly the welcome was short-lived and shallow, for Jerusalem would soon reject her Messiah, and put him to death.

17th April – Maundy Thursday:

Maundy Thursday is famous for two things. The first is one of the final acts that Jesus did before his death: the washing of his own disciples' feet (see John 13). Jesus washed his disciples' feet for a purpose: "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another." His disciples were to love through service, not domination, of one another. Thursday was also important because it was on that night that Jesus first introduced the Lord's Supper, or what we call Holy Communion. Jesus and his close friends had met in a secret upper room to share the Passover meal together – for the last time. Jesus transformed the Passover into the Lord's Supper, saying, 'this is my body' and 'this is my blood' as he, the Lamb of God, prepared to die for the sins of the whole world.

18th April – Good Friday:

Good Friday is the day on which Jesus died on the cross. He was crucified at 9.00 in the morning, and died six hours later, at 3.00pm. It is the most solemn day in the Christian year, and is widely marked by the removal of all decorations from churches.

20th April – Easter Day:

Easter is the most joyful day of the year for Christians. Christ has died for our sins. We are forgiven. Christ has risen! We look forward to an eternity in His joy! Hallelujah!

Clodagh Dunlop

Photograph deleted here for copyright reasons

Clodagh Dunlop, had a brainstem stroke ten years ago. This left her paralysed with locked-in syndrome and only able to communicate by blinking one eye. After seven and a half months in hospital, then learning to walk and talk again in intensive rehab, Clodagh continues to make a recovery, though she still has disabilities. Now back working as a serving PSNI officer, she was honoured in the King's Birthday Honours List with a MBE for her work with stroke survivors. She highlighted the danger of younger people with strokes being misdiagnosed, and the importance of fast access to life-saving surgery. Clodagh says, "Many people tell me I have a great story, but as great as the story is and as remarkable as my recovery has been, I really don't want anybody else to have the same story." Clodagh was the speaker at our MU Visitors Night. See pages 12

Parish Visitations

The Clergy and the Diocesan Pastoral Assistant are continually making visits around the parish, but these are often prioritised by sickness and bereavement calls. As we have now well over 600 families emergency calls are quite numerous. Sometimes we are not in the right place at the right time and that is where you can help. If for some reason you are ill, have been ill or bereaved, please let us know by contacting the Cathedral Office and someone will call with you. No contact may well result in no visit through no fault of the clergy! If you or a member of your family is in hospital please inform us otherwise we may not know. Help us to help you!

Mothers' Union

The March meeting of the Mothers' Union was 'Visitors Night', held on Monday 10th at 7.30pm in the main hall with 127 people present. Jenifer, branch leader, opened the meeting by giving everyone a very warm welcome. The speaker was Clodagh Dunlop who came to share her story about having a stroke and then suffering from 'Locked-in Syndrome.' Clodagh shared with us her journey from the day she took the stroke to the day she returned back to work defying all odds, her story was moving, heart warming and made us feel very appreciative of our health. The Dean and Margaret Owens both thanked Clodagh for sharing her story. A delicious supper was served by the committee and enjoyed by everyone. A collection was made on the night for NI Chest, Heart & Stroke and £700 was collected. Jenifer closed the meeting followed by the Mothers' Union prayer. Our next meeting is the 14th April when we will attend church for the Holy week service at 7.30pm.

Bible Reading Notes

Each Sunday all three readings from the Revised Common Lectionary are printed on a Parish Bulletin. The Psalm and Collect are also listed. Make sure you get this sheet each week. If for some reason you are not out, get someone to take one for you. Please keep it and use one of the readings or psalm each day throughout the week in your private prayers.

Copies of Our Daily Bread (Bible Reading Notes) are available free of charge at the back of the church. Please take one and you will find an order form included so that you can order them and have them sent directly by post to your own home. These will make the reading of the Bible easy, enjoyable, interesting, and relevant to every day life.

'Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path' (Psalm 119: 105)

Donations to Charities

Air Ambulance (Northern Ireland) - £5,000

Air Ambulance attends some of the most traumatic medical incidents across the province and is dedicated to delivering the very best possible pre-hospital critical care, both at the scene and whilst transferring the patient to the most appropriate hospital for their specific injuries. The helicopter can get anywhere in the province in approximately twenty-five minutes and the rapid response is vital in an emergency situation. If a patient reaches hospital within the Golden Hour (60 minutes after their injury) their chances of survival are dramatically increased. Each day costs it costs £6,850 and £2.5m is needed each year to keep the Air Ambulance service operational, and is fortunate to count on tremendous public support.

Donations to Charities

Church of Ireland Bishops' Appeal - £10,000

The Church of Ireland Bishops' Appeal works through partner non-governmental organisations and mission agencies to implement Christ's 'mission statement' to feed the hungry, lift the burden of poverty from the poor and bring freedom and hope to the oppressed. Bishops' Appeal contributes to relief of suffering in time of emergencies whether natural or man-made. However, our main concern is to support ongoing development in the fields of sustainable agriculture, health, including HIV/AIDS, and education in many parts of the world. Their aim is to enable people to have more control over their own lives and futures so that they are less dependent on others than they are today.

Psalm

Psalm 106

The Hebrew scriptures are quite insistent on stories. Stories can have a multifaceted power over us: they not only fascinate and intrigue and entertain; they also comfort and teach and challenge and rebuke us. Right from the fictions of the likes of Esther and Job to the historical stories of people like Daniel and Nehemiah, the Bible bristles with rattling good reads. Who has ever forgotten the events of the imaginary they provide, who hasn't benefitted from the truths they subtly present, who has never passed one of them on? And so it's hardly surprising that stories feature prominently in ancient Jewish worship. Psalm 106 was sung regularly in the rebuilt Temple after the return from exile.

Here we consider, in grim, nothing-omitted detail, the story of a people's rather dynamic relationship with God. It's a poetic telling of the cyclical account of rescue, obedience, falling-away, repentance and rescue that the ancient Israelites followed for much of their history. Here are the famines, the slaveries, the captivities, the battles, the exiles. Red Sea crossings, golden calves, plagues and pagan sacrifices are all in the plot. This however is not just the story of a huge family, this is the story of a God who journeys with people, who sees not just a nation, but individuals, as travelling souls, and always worthy of forgiveness, grace and love. This is the messy story of God and people. This is the gritty story of salvation.

Heather Beds

The heather beds at the front of the Cathedral Hall are looking especially beautiful at this time of year. We are indebted to Mr Jim Clarke who tends them diligently for this wonderful display.

Ideal Presents 400th Anniversary Year - Cathedral History Book

The author
Samuel Boyd Morrow OBE FRGS graduated from Queen's University in 1959. His Civil Service career was in agriculture, finishing as Fermanagh's County Agricultural Officer. In his last two years, before retirement in 1996, he served as Principal of Enniskillen Agricultural College in addition to his role as County Agricultural Officer. His education in Fermanagh was at Clabby Primary School and then Portora Royal School. In his youth he worshipped in St Margaret's Parish Church, Clabby. He has been a member of Enniskillen parish since 1966 and a member of its select vestry since 1968. He has served periods as churchwarden, glebewarden and has been honorary secretary of the select vestry since 1989.
He has written four other books, two on agricultural matters and two on church history. Those dealing with church affairs are titled: The Church of Ireland Parishes of Tempo and Clabby - a Shared Heritage, and: Clabby on the Map - The Church of Ireland Parishes of Clabby and its People.

Designed and printed by Parnell Press Design Ltd. Tel: 07811 337783

The cup presented by Edward Barry in 1518 is still in use at the celebration of Holy Communion in St Macartin's Cathedral. The manuscript by John de Porcum, Ecclesie Parochialis de S. Martino ex quo Edward Barry Graueus anno 1518, presented this vessel. The cup of the Parish Church of Enniskillen, the gift of Edward Barry, 1518, to the year 1518.

*The book, in 344 chapters, records the establishment and development of the Church of Ireland Parish of Enniskillen and its church now St Macartin's Cathedral. The church was established as part of the plan for the Plantation of Ulster by the late 17th century. It has an inheritance from the ancient Catholic Church.
The church's building dates from the early 18th century and since then its clergy and people have experienced many political, social, military and economic challenges. Enniskillen men played an important role in supporting King William against the army of King James II. The conflict led to the establishment of two Enniskillen parishes leaving the vicarage of the town, later called the cathedral, home for many of the best of scholars and ministers of these parishes and within its historic walls is the fine building, the cathedral chapel.
In more recent times, St Macartin's Cathedral has made a major contribution in developing community relations and has been the most important people in the United Kingdom and Ireland story of worship, maintenance and development. Today, St Macartin's is committed to providing a welcoming home to all who are seeking to deepen and develop their spiritual lives and their relationship with God.*

St Macartin's Cathedral
at the Heart of the Community

Over 400 years of Parish History
by Samuel B. Morrow

St Macartin's Cathedral by Samuel B. Morrow

A number of St Macartin's 400 Years of Parish History by Samuel B Morrow are still available at the launch price of £20.00. These would make ideal gifts for family members and friends, especially those who were baptised, confirmed or married in the Cathedral, and for those who have had relatives buried from the cathedral. Copies are available from the Parish Office, the Deanery or from the Churchwardens.

Prayer Books

Do you have a Prayer book in your home? If not you should have! We are a Prayer Book church and the Prayer Book should not just be on those shelves at the back of the church for use on Sunday, but there should be a copy of a Prayer Book in every home. Everything in it is biblically based and it is a vital tool to everyday living, for daily prayer, and for nourishment and for enriching our daily walk with God. As you leaf through the Prayer Book you will find services and prayers for daily use, and for every situation and worry in life. It is a marvellous resource so use it. Copies are available from the Cathedral Office for £20.00 and would make an ideal gift!

Knowing Your Cathedral: The Irvine Window

Even the grandest and most beautiful religious buildings are not the Church: God's Church is made of souls, of the living and the departed. At the East end of the South Aisle we have a window that understands and teaches this great truth. Beneath the risen Christ there is a whole host of the faithful departed, those listening to Jesus' teachings, those who travelled with him and supported his ministry, those who cared for his body after his death, and we hear the words of David and Joel, a great king and a great prophet, each pointing towards the greatest King and the greatest Prophet. The Church is made of this diversity of people, as shown in the glass, young and old, male and female, rich and poor, from all situations, in all stages of the journey of faith, all with their own story, all gathered around Christ, ministering in his name, ministering to him, ministering to his people. This window is about the Church and its role as the bride of Christ, the varied and all-embracing scope of just what that means for people in all places and all ages.
