The Dean Writes:

Dear Parishioners,

The Parish of Enniskillen has just had one of the most important events in 400 years – the production and launch of our new history book by Mr Samuel B Morrow OBE. We are grateful to Sam for his time and effort to put in print and picture all these years so that we are able to reflect on the past. If it were not for the faithful Christians of generations before us, we would have nothing to record or inherit. The challenge for each one of us is to make sure we hand on that rich Christian heritage, which we have received, to the generations that follow!

We are now beginning the season of Advent. The seasons of the church's year are important to us and we should value the annual cycle as we start a new Church year on the first Sunday in December - Advent Sunday. Advent is a time of reflective waiting and preparing for Christmas. The Liturgical colour for the Advent Season is purple, the mood is more sombre and no Gloria is sung in our services. In Advent, we are reminded of God's promise to his people that one would come to break into the darkness and bring light and hope to all. We hear the message delivered by the prophets, by John the Baptist, by the angel visiting Mary. This is a two-fold message of expectant waiting –for the birth of a Messiah and for the time when Christ will return to earth. As we wait, we are called to be ready and to prepare ourselves for the celebrations ahead and that time when Jesus returns as our judge. Our Sunday and Thursday services during Advent will help us in this time of preparation. Then on Christmas Eve we change to a beautifully decorated church, with joyful carols and white furnishings. This signals the excitement of the celebration of the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The seasons in the church's year also remind us that life is never static, that it is always changing, but that underlying this there is one constant –that our God is never changing, ever faithful and always with us. It is this fact that sustains our church community in our life together through the inevitable changes that we face. As we watch the seasons come and go, as we move through the Advent season into Christmas, as we experience changes in our own lives, our church and our community, may we remember that we have a faithful God, who promises never to leave us or forsake us. For this is the hope that truly will sustain us, and it is this faith and hope that we need to pass on to the generations to follow. If the Christian message of faith and hope depended only on you and on me, would we pass it on? Or would it end abruptly with us? Each one of us has that responsibility to be faithful witnesses in the way we speak and act, not least in showing an example to others to be regular worshippers at church, and to make absolutely certain that St Macartin's Cathedral has hundreds more years of history yet to be written!

There are many opportunities for you to attend church during Advent and Christmas and truly worship our Heavenly King. As you draw close to Him may you experience that true Heavenly joy. Let His grace and forgiveness give you hope. Let His mercy bring you joy.

Wishing you every blessing,

Kenneth R J Hall

Home Holy Communions for Christmas

During the weeks before Christmas the Clergy will be celebrating Holy Communion with those who are unable to attend the Cathedral. If you, or someone known to you, would like to receive such a visit then please contact the Cathedral Office. Those who had Holy Communion at home at Easter will automatically be on the list.

SANDS NI Carol Service

SANDS NI support people who experience the tragedy of stillbirth or the death of an infant in the first weeks of life. SANDS is organising an ecumenical Christmas Carol Service for those who have been affected by the loss of a baby, in St Macartin's Cathedral, Enniskillen on Friday 6th December at 7.30pm. This will be a gentle, hope-filled service of carols, readings and prayers.

Those attending are asked to bring a gift-wrapped toy appropriate to the age that the child you lost would be today. These gifts will be placed under the Christmas tree and donated to local charities. Tea and light refreshments will be served after the service.

Christmas Services

Forming Faith at St Macartin's

Messy Church @ The Cathedral

A mess was made in the Cathedral hall once again when Messy Church returned on Thursday 17th October. We were joined by friends old and new for an afternoon filled with glitter, glue, food and fun and jam-packed with bible stories, songs and worship!

The first session of the year saw children getting to know each other as well as getting to know Jesus. Our crafts focused on the different miracles that Jesus performed throughout his life including raising the dead, feeding the 5000 and healing the sick. We even got to see one of our leaders turn water into wine before we had a feast of hot dogs and fruit provided by the lovely ladies of the Mothers' Union.

Messy Church is open to children of primary school age and of all denominations. All children must be accompanied by an adult. The rule is: no child without an adult and no adult without a child.

Join us for our next Messy Christmas Party on Thursday 19th December from 4.00- 6.00pm.

Xplore

October's Xplore saw our youth enjoy a spooky scavenger hunt around Enniskillen with hot chocolate in hand! Beginning at the Cathedral Hall, the group visited some creepy spots around the town under the cover of darkness to find the clues and win some prizes. We ventured past the Buttermarket, walked up toward Cole's Monument, toured the outskirts of the castle and explored the Cathedral grounds while sharing some scary tales along the way. The evening finished with chocolate apples, face painting and spooky movies back at the hall. It was a great way to start our half term break!

Xplore is open to all young people who are of confirmation age or above. We meet once a month in the Upper Room of the Cathedral hall for food, fun and fellowship.

Our next meeting is Monday 16th December from 7.30 – 9.00pm. Come join us for some festive fun... and bring a friend!

If you are interested in helping out with any of our Youth or Children's Programmes, you can get in touch through our Social Media pages. Alternatively, you can call into the Cathedral Hall to ask how you can get involved!

Find us on Facebook or Instagram to keep up to date with the Youth and Children's Work going on at the Cathedral!

Launch of book detailing history of St Macartin's Cathedral

To mark the launch of Mr Sam Morrow's book a Rowan tree was planted beside the Garden of Remembrance by Sam after church on Sunday 3rd November. The Rowan Tree leaves and berries are symbolic of the name Macartin meaning 'Son of the Rowan Tree'.

Free Will Offering Envelopes for 2020

Every family is receiving a set of blue 2020 envelopes with this magazine. Please do not use these 2020 envelopes until January.

We would encourage you to use the FWO envelopes instead of putting cash on the collection plate. By doing so, the church may be able to claim an additional 25% as Gift Aid and your giving to the church would be increased at no additional expense to yourselves. This also applies to other gifts to the church.

A growing number of parishioners contribute by Standing Order and they also receive envelopes. Your envelope number is unique to you, therefore these envelopes cannot be used by anyone else. If you wish to make other contributions eg at Harvest this is the number you use. Your offerings will be listed anonymously if that is your wish.

Thank you for your co-operation and your continued support for the parish.

Renewal of Car Park Fobs

We wish to remind parishioners who use the car park that their fobs need to be renewed now. Fobs cost £25 per year. Thank you for using the car park responsibly.

Confirmation

This year's confirmation candidates are beginning preparation for their big step forward in their Christian journey in 2020. There will be a special all-age service on 24th November, meeting as a class for the first time on Monday 25th, and then again before Christmas on: Monday 2nd and Monday 9th December from 6.30 – 7.30 pm in the Upper Room, Cathedral Hall. If you are in Year 9 or above it is not too late to register for Confirmation on Sunday 15th March – just get a form from the Cathedral Office or speak to the Dean. In the New Year, classes start back on 13th January.

The Beatitudes – a new series

Matthew 5: 1-12

'Blessed are those who mourn'

The Beatitudes, at the beginning of the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5:1-12), present the values of the kingdom of God. In 'Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted' (5:4), Jesus appears to be saying 'Happy are the unhappy'!

It's not wrong for Christians to be sad or grieve, as we can still experience God's blessing ('blessed'). Jesus promises God's comfort for our loss, mourning, pain and hurt. This is the work of the Holy Spirit into our lives. He is described as the 'Comforter' (John 14:16) ie 'the one who comes alongside us to help'. He assures us of Jesus' presence to share our sadness, make us aware of His love and strengthen us in our sorrows. Jesus has been in this place Himself, when He shed tears at the tomb of His close friend Lazarus (John 11:35).

There is also a godly grief which the Spirit brings into our lives, as we reflect on our messy lives. Peter wept bitterly after denying that he knew Jesus (Matthew 26:75). He makes us aware of our spiritual poverty, including our failures and shortcomings when it comes to loving and serving God. The Holy Spirit is also alongside to assure us of God's forgiveness and cleansing as God's children (Romans 8:16).

The Spirit also helps us to share the Father's broken heart for our suffering world and for the communities of which we are part. Jesus Himself wept over Jerusalem, because its inhabitants failed to see what was happening in their midst (Luke 19:41).

We can live under God's blessing in sadness, as He is able to turn our tears to joy, even though our comfort will only truly be complete in heaven. 'God comforts the disturbed and disturbs the comfortable.'

Meaning:

Being blessed, or at least feeling blessed, is often linked to beatitude. Beatitude inherited its blessedness from the Latin word beatus, meaning both "happy" and "blessed." In the Bible, the Beatitudes are a series of eight blessings, such as "Blessed are those poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

Next month we will look at the third Beatitude.....

'Blessed are the meek'

Psalm

This evening psalm, often used in Night Prayer, gives us reassuring words to say as we entrust ourselves to sleep. It forms a pair with Psalm 3 and speaks of the betrayal and insult experienced by the psalmist and the foolishness of those who 'seek after falsehood'

It fits David's time as a fugitive hounded by the 'nobles' who turned from him in favour of Saul. It chimes with the life of believers today as we see so much love of 'vain things' - an obsession with that which is empty — in our world. We are surrounded by false promises of satisfaction from sources that cannot deliver.

The test of faith comes when Saul seems to be winning, when sin seems to be paying, when emptiness seems to fill its supplicants with what they need — 'when their corn and wine and oil increase' (v.7). It is in those moments that we are called upon to exercise the strength of faith, believing that God can be trusted to 'lift up the light of [his] countenance upon us' (v.6).

The first dawn of God's light is gladness of heart (v. 7), a deep inner joy that overrides outward difficulties. The fullness of God's light upon us and our world, though, is the promised shalom, the peace of God that penetrates every dimension of human life, putting right that which is wrong and proving that it is the Lord, only, who secures life for humanity.

Parochial Organisations

Mothers' Union

The Dean opened the meeting in the Hilliard Room on Monday 11th November with a reading and prayer. Branch Leader Stephanie gave a warm welcome to our guest speaker Rev. Olivia Downey rector of the Clogher group of parishes and former curate of the Cathedral. Rev Olie as we know her gave an inspirational presentation on her long and sometimes difficult journey from 'The Ward to the Pulpit .' She grew up in the parish of Aghadrumsee the youngest of four children, School wasn't the happiest of times but she studied and became a senior cardiac nurse in the south of England. Whilst these were very happy times the calling to the Ministry was very much in her thoughts but she kept thinking it wasn't possible but from one of her many and often humorous quotes: 'God doesn't call the qualified but qualifies the called'. Olie decided to apply and to her surprise she was accepted to study in Dublin. So the journey commenced, she quotes " I left a good job for a great job." We all enjoyed her story and wish her good health and happiness in her future ministry. Stephanie then brought the meeting to a close with the Mothers' Union prayer. Some members attended the Autumn Council meeting which was held in Aghavea Parish Hall on Thursday October 24th at 7.30 pm. It would be appreciated if all outstanding dues could be paid to the Treasurer Jenifer Johnston before Christmas. Our next meeting on 3rd December is a night at the Ardhowen Theatre to see The Adams Family. Wishing all our members a very happy Christmas and peaceful New Year. The first meeting of the New Year is a Service of Holy Communion celebrated by the Dean on Monday 13th January.

Tuesday Club

The Dean opened the October meeting with a reading from Psalm 27 and prayers. Eleanor asked that Joan Elliott, who has been bereaved and Chris Wilson who is convalescing be remembered in our prayers.

By request Jack Spratt and Norma Ferguson returned with Bocce. Bocce is a game that tests both health and fitness. Before starting the game Norma, while demonstrating gentle armchair exercises, encouraged members to join in. The players then divided into two competing teams. The aim of the games is for each player to roll a ball to land close to the target white ball. Play commenced and the game was enjoyed by all. Tea was then served bringing a competitive afternoon to a close. The next meeting is on 26th November at 2.00pm in the Enniskeen Room, when there will be a General Knowledge Quiz. The 60+ Christmas Party is on Tuesday 10th December at 7.00pm in the Main Hall. All members are invited for Christmas dinner after which you will be entertained by our Choir. This is another chance to hear our very talented choir, who can do much more than sing! Please telephone the office to book.

Bellringers

Bellringers: Jim Lucy, Emma Semple, Sandra Richmond Jenny Rogers, Chris Rogers and Derek Allen.

A note from the Bellringers:

Mr Chris Rogers and his wife Jenny from Guildford, Surrey, rang with us on Sunday 11th August. Chris was a principal ringer at Westminster Abbey until very recently when he retired at the age of 75!! It was an honour and privilege to have him as a ringer in our tower.

Our Daily Bread – Bible reading notes

Each Sunday all three readings from the Revised Common Lectionary are printed on a Parish Bulletin. The Psalm and Collect are also listed. Make sure you get this sheet each week (If for some reason you are not out – get someone to take one for you). Please keep it and use one of the readings or psalm each day throughout the week with your private prayers.

Copies of Our Daily Bread (Bible Reading Notes) are available free of charge at the back of the church. Please take one and you will find an order form included so that you can order them and have them sent directly by post to your own home. These will make the reading of the Bible easy, enjoyable, interesting and relevant to every day life.

Hospital Visiting

If you or a member of your family are admitted to any hospital including the South West Acute Hospital, and you would like a visit please inform the Cathedral Office or a member of the clergy. Do not rely on the hospital system to inform the clergy as this may not happen. The clergy may well be on the same ward visiting other parishioners and not be aware of a parishioner in another room!

Parish Visiting

Can you help us? The Clergy and Diocesan Pastoral Assistant are always around the Parish making visits but they might not be in the right place at the right time. If you are unwell, feeling neglected or just lonely please ring the Cathedral Office and one of the clergy will be delighted to call. If you know someone who would value a Clerical visit or if a parishioner has had a close bereavement please also inform the office. It is not recommended that you tell one of the clergy at the Cathedral door on a Sunday morning as there is every chance they could forget in the midst of shaking hands with 300 people! A written note handed to them is a safer option.

Prayer Books

Do you have a Prayer book in your home? If not you should have!

We are a Prayer Book church and the Prayer Book should not just be on those shelves at the back of the church for use on Sunday, but there should be a copy of a Prayer Book in every home. Everything in it is biblically based and it is a vital tool to everyday living, for daily prayer, and for nourishment and for enriching our daily walk with God. As you leaf through the Prayer Book you will find services and prayers for daily use, and for every situation and worry in life. It is a marvellous resource so use it. Copies are available from the Cathedral Office for £20.00 and would make an ideal Christmas gift!

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

Service in Enniskillen Presbyterian Church at 8.00pm on Thursday 23rd January 2020.

On 10th February many Christians in Malta celebrate the Feast of the Shipwreck of St Paul, marking and giving thanks for the arrival of Christian faith on these islands. The reading from the Acts of the Apostles used for the feast is the text chosen for this year's Week of Prayer.

Hospitality is a much needed virtue in our search for Christian unity. It calls us to a greater generosity to those in need. The people who showed unusual kindness to Paul and his companions did not yet know Christ, and yet it is through their unusual kindness that a divided people were drawn closer together. Our own Christian unity will be discovered not only through showing hospitality to one another, but also through loving encounters with those who do not share our language, culture or faith. In such tempestuous journeys and chance encounters, God's will for his Church and all people comes to fulfilment. As Paul will proclaim in Rome, this salvation of God has been sent to all peoples (see Acts 28:28). All are welcome to this service

Happy New Year

The Christian faith teaches that a new start is endlessly possible. It is provided by a personal encounter with the risen and living Jesus Christ. He offers us the opportunity and the resources to make a new start, despite all our circumstances or failings.

The Bible records many encouraging examples of people who were able to start again after encountering Jesus. These include a woman caught in adultery who was facing execution by an outraged community, a hated tax collector named Zacchaeus who had been collaborating with the enemy, and Peter, the close friend of Jesus who publicly disowned him.

God's provision of a new start liberates people from the powerful hold that guilt, fear and memories of failure can have over a human. The life, death and resurrection of Jesus have made a way for humans to find

God's forgiveness. A Christian is someone who has accepted God's forgiveness and now has the freedom to reject the old habits of bitterness, anger or revenge, like disposing of a 'shabby old coat'. Many Christians experience this as such a new beginning that they describe it as feeling like a different kind of life.

Forgiveness, however, is not the same as perfection. Although many Christians can look back to a specific time at which they made a decision to make a new start as a follower of the way of Jesus Christ, living up to a new way of being is an ongoing struggle. There is a frequent need to revisit and remember the new start. Church services almost always include a point at which worshippers are encouraged to think about recent failures, confess them, and ask for the mercy of God in absolute certainty that He will forgive.

The Bible describes God's promises of mercy as 'new every morning'. It is in the gracious nature of God that mistakes and failures are not a stick to be beaten with, but an opportunity to change into something better.

Shoe Box Appeal

Thank you to all who took part in the Shoebox Appeal. Almost 200 shoeboxes were sent off from the Cathedral to destitute children in Eastern Europe. These simple items/toys will transform the lives of many and probably be the only Christmas present they receive. Thank you to Dr Willie Holmes for purchasing the specially designed empty shoeboxes (for filling).
