The Dean Writes:

Dear Parishioners,

One of the main reasons I am Church of Ireland or Anglican is my own history. I was born into a family with established roots in the Church of Ireland, and I suppose prior to that established roots in the Anglican Church (Hall an old English surname dating back to 1090). It was the Church of Ireland which nourished my faith, teaching me the word of God and giving me the fellowship of Christian people to encourage me in love of God and neighbour. Some years later it was the Church of Ireland that gave me the privilege of theological training which taught and equipped me for my life and ministry.

So I am a thoroughly cultural Anglican. I feel comfortable with the language, style, music, customs and structures of Anglican life, and I am greatly indebted to the many Anglicans who, through this form of Christian faith, have contributed so much to my life and training. It was in this context that I was baptised, confirmed and ordained, and in this context I was encouraged to grow and develop in faith.

However, personal history is not enough to maintain one in Anglicanism. That would not even be consistent with Anglicanism itself. I believe in civil and religious liberty (famous words for Orangemen!), and decisions about faith must be made on the basis of the gospel, not on personal culture. Therefore, I am an Anglican now by choice, not only by inheritance, and the choice is one of theology, not culture. I am an Anglican because I feel Anglican theology is an accurate expression of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and the Book of Common Prayer is not superimposed over the word of God, but very much reflects what the word of God says. We are a Prayer Book Church!

The Prayer Book is a vital resource to help us grow and develop in faith.

The Church of Ireland is not the only way to be Christian—far from it. It is only one of many ways in which our Christian faith can be expressed, however it is the way many of you and myself are accustomed to. Have a read at pages 6, 7 and 8 of this Cathedral News and learn more about your faith, who you are and what you believe. We hope over the next few editions of this Cathedral News to include an article related to an aspect of the liturgy of The Book of Common Prayer. The challenge for all of us is how we live and practise that faith. The Church of Ireland regards worship as a priority and provides a context in which people of diverse views can live and worship together. The clergy and leadership of St Macartin's

Cathedral are striving hard to create this context for the parishioners and the people of Enniskillen. We want to reach out to anyone and everyone, especially those who have lapsed, lost their faith or simply given up on church! If you are not already a committed member of our congregation, or not a regular attender, please come and experience what is on offer!

We are disciples of Jesus Christ and we place ourselves as Our Vision states "At the heart of the Community, Strengthening Commitment, Outreach, Worship and Christian Love" to all.

Yours very sincerely,

Kenneth R J Hall

The Church of Ireland

Our Worship

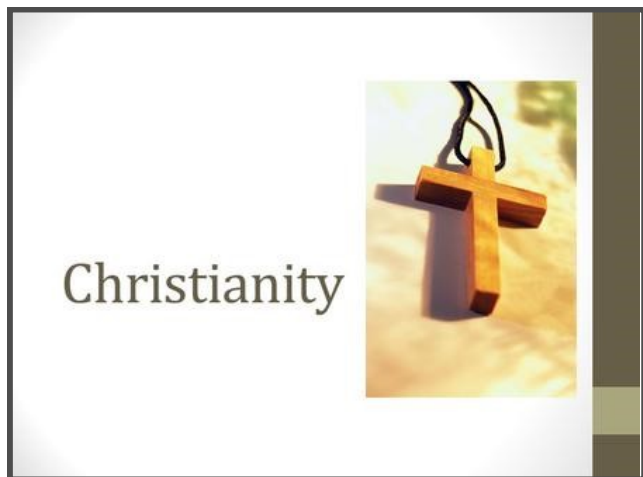

Worship is central to the life of the Church. We have a rich variety of forms of worship through which we hear the Word of God read and preached and we receive the sacraments.

The Church of Ireland in its corporate worship makes use of The Book of Common Prayer, which was originally published in 1549 and has subsequently been revised on four occasions, most recently in 2004. Our most common forms of worship are the Holy Communion (or Eucharist) and Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer.

Holy Communion is the central act of worship of the Church of Ireland. We warmly invite all communicant members of Christian churches to join us at the Lord's Table.

Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer date back to the Reformation when the medieval monastic daily prayer routine was adapted by Archbishop Thomas Cranmer and subsequently adopted by the Church of Ireland.

What we believe

We are disciples of Jesus Christ, worshippers of God the Holy Trinity (Father, Son and Holy Spirit) and subscribers to the Creeds of the early Church.

In keeping with Anglican theology, our beliefs and practices derive from Scripture, reason and tradition.

We are Catholic in holding all the Christian faith in its fullness and being part of the one worldwide Church of God.

We are Reformed in believing that the Church's life should be aligned with Scripture and that the Church should only require its members to believe those doctrines to which Scripture bears witness.

We are disciples of Jesus Christ, worshippers of God the Holy Trinity and subscribers to the Creeds of the early Church.

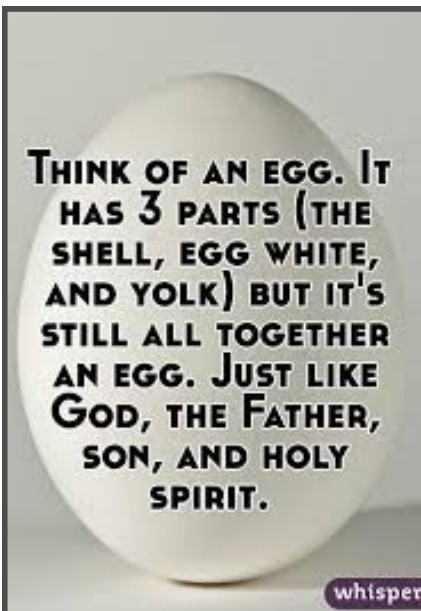

The Church of Ireland is a member Church of the Anglican Communion, a family of independent Churches in full communion with each other and with the See of Canterbury.

The Church of Ireland

We rejoice in the progress on unity made by the ecumenical movement and we seek to remove obstacles to full communion between Christians and to gain from the insight and experience of others. We provide a context in which people of diverse views on theology and liturgy can live and worship together.

We regard worship as a priority for every Christian. In particular, we see the Holy Communion (the Eucharist) as the main way in which church members celebrate their love for God and for each other and become renewed as the Body of Christ for mission and service.

We regard worship as a priority for every Christian.

The Book of Common Prayer is a source of unity within the Church and an expression of a liturgical language, traditional and modern, which over the years has captivated people by its beauty and spiritual power. We see a direct relationship between the language of common prayer and the language of doctrine: the words that church members themselves pray and own become the expression of what the Church itself believes. We affirm the ancient threefold ministry of bishops, priests and deacons. The ordained ministry serves the whole people of God, to facilitate and encourage its members in their worship, and to enable each of them to identify their own particular ministry as baptised Christians.

The Church of Ireland

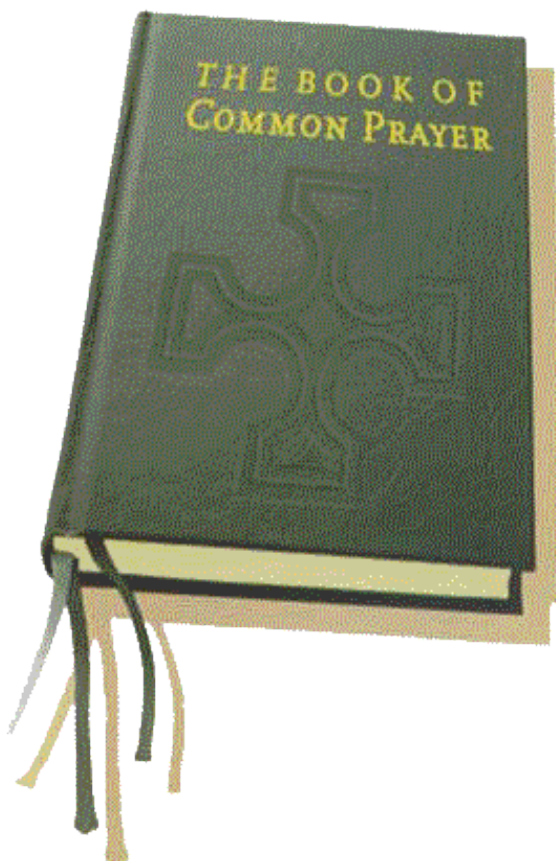

Book of Common Prayer (BCP)

Perhaps contrary to popular belief, the Book of Common Prayer (BCP) has not remained unchanged since its first publication during the turmoil of the Reformation in the 16th and 17th centuries. The BCP in English made its first appearance in 1549 with revisions following in 1552, 1559 and 1662. After the disestablishment of the Church of Ireland in 1871, changes were made to the 1662 Prayer Book and a new edition was published in 1878 to reflect the changed times and circumstances of the Church. A further revision was initiated by the General Synod in 1909 and was published in 1926, again with the intention of adapting services 'to the requirements of the present time'. Two alternative forms of Evening Prayer were then added to this revision in 1933 to produce the BCP in use in many churches of the Church of Ireland today.

In 1962 great liturgical changes were underway in all the major Churches of Christendom and in that year the General Synod set up the Liturgical Advisory Committee (LAC) to bring forward proposals for a further revision of the services of the Church of Ireland. In their work the LAC gave attention to the use of modern language in worship and the result was the Alternative Prayer Book (APB) published in 1984.

In the preface to the APB it was clearly stated:

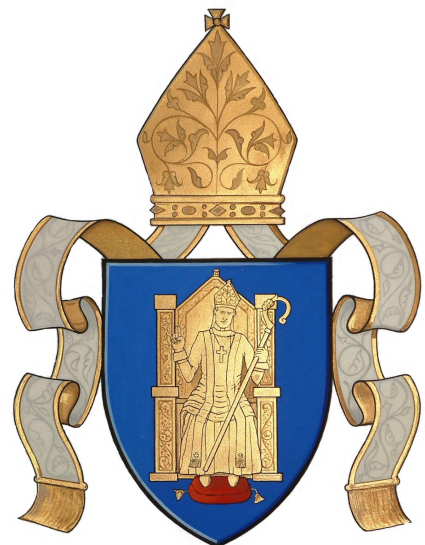

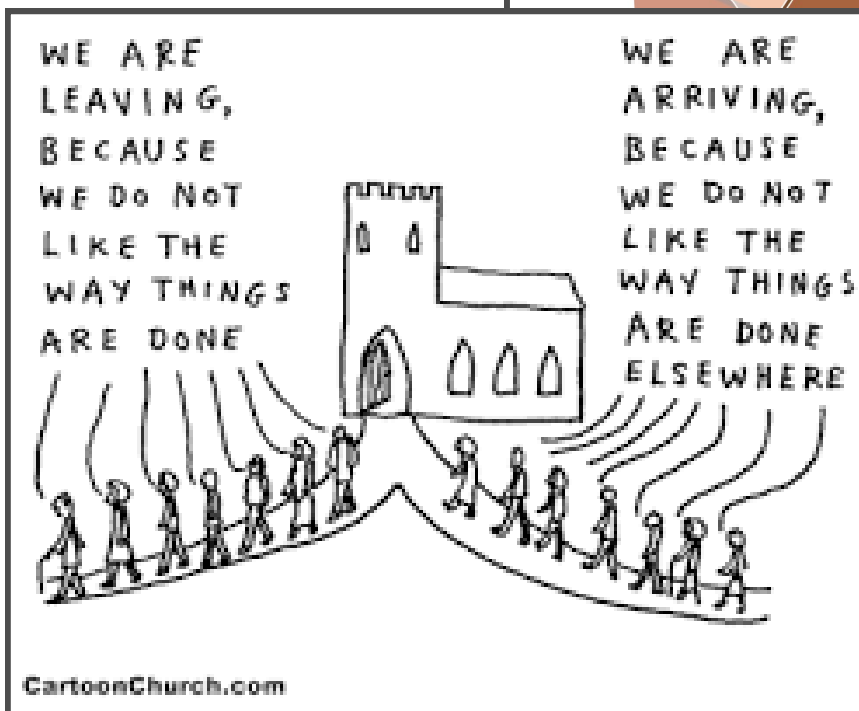

'This book does not replace the Book of Common Prayer but provides authorized alternative services for use in public worship.'

Continuing this work of modernisation of language and forms of worship, the General Synod passed a number of statutes between 1986 and 1992 providing for alternative or additional forms of service for 'pastoral occasions'. These were gathered together and published as Alternative Occasional Services (AOS) in 1993.

In 1997 the General Synod of the Church of Ireland requested the LAC to prepare a new edition of the BCP. This new Book of Common Prayer was to include not only services of the Church handed down through the centuries but also services in contemporary language. Thus the new book would represent the cumulative labours of committee and of synod over many generations.

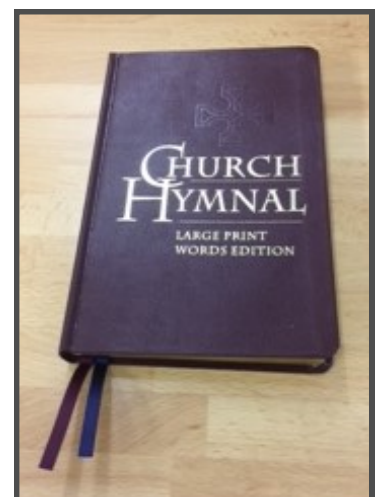

This new edition of the BCP was published in 2004 is now the only prayer book authorised for use in the Church of Ireland with effect from Trinity Sunday, 6th June, 2004.

Presentation Hymnals

Presentation editions of the Church Hymnal are an ideal gift for confirmations or for special occasions in the Church calendar. Bound in a soft burgundy leather cover and with gilded pages, it contains over 700 hymns – but the light pages ensure that the book itself is not overly bulky. This edition is now on sale in the Parish Office for the reduced price of £10 until Easter.

It is an offer not to be missed!

The Choir

The choir consists of individuals encompassing a range of voices from a broad spectrum of age groups, who share a love for music and worship to God. It is a particularly friendly and welcoming group, who enjoy both the singing and camaraderie afforded by being part of the choir. In addition to parishioners, a number of choir members come from beyond the parish and contribute to the life of the choir. They are much appreciated for doing so.

The choir is always keen to welcome new members, particularly those who can contribute to the Bass and Tenor sections. The choir sing at the 11am service each Sunday morning, meet for practice fortnightly on the first and third Wednesday evening of each month, and occasionally sing at other special services. The choir joins together for an annual Christmas dinner, and also take up opportunities to participate in choral experiences such as the recent Festal Evensong in Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin which many choir members attended in November.

Confirmation News

The Story so Far

Confirmation Classes continue to run on Monday nights from 6.30-7.30. Laura and Rev Chris continue to enjoy the lively group of 25 candidates from Years 9 and 10. So far, we have looked at topics including what confirmation is and isn't, the church year, following Christ in everyday life, and what the church is. Each young person is compiling a portfolio to showcase what they've learnt using worksheets, posters, and participation in Sunday morning worship on the welcome team, taking the collection, and with readings and prayers.

Confirmation Date

An exciting development is that the Bishop has confirmed the date of the confirmation service –

Sunday 14th May at 7.00pm.

Before then, we have lots to do: learning about Holy Communion, the role of the Bible and prayer, our own gifts and ministries in the church ... as well as some pizza to eat, movies to watch, and a day trip to organise! More details nearer the time ...

Half Term

Please note that instead of the normal Confirmation Class on Monday 13th February there is a Half Term Pizza & Movie Night to celebrate all the hard work done so far. This starts at the normal time of 6.30pm but will finish at 8.30pm. There will be no class on Monday 20th February. Then classes resume on Monday 27th.

Even if you don't have a child or grandchild preparing for confirmation this year, please remember these 25 young people in your prayers as they approach this big next step in their lives as followers of Jesus Christ and members of our church.

Xplore

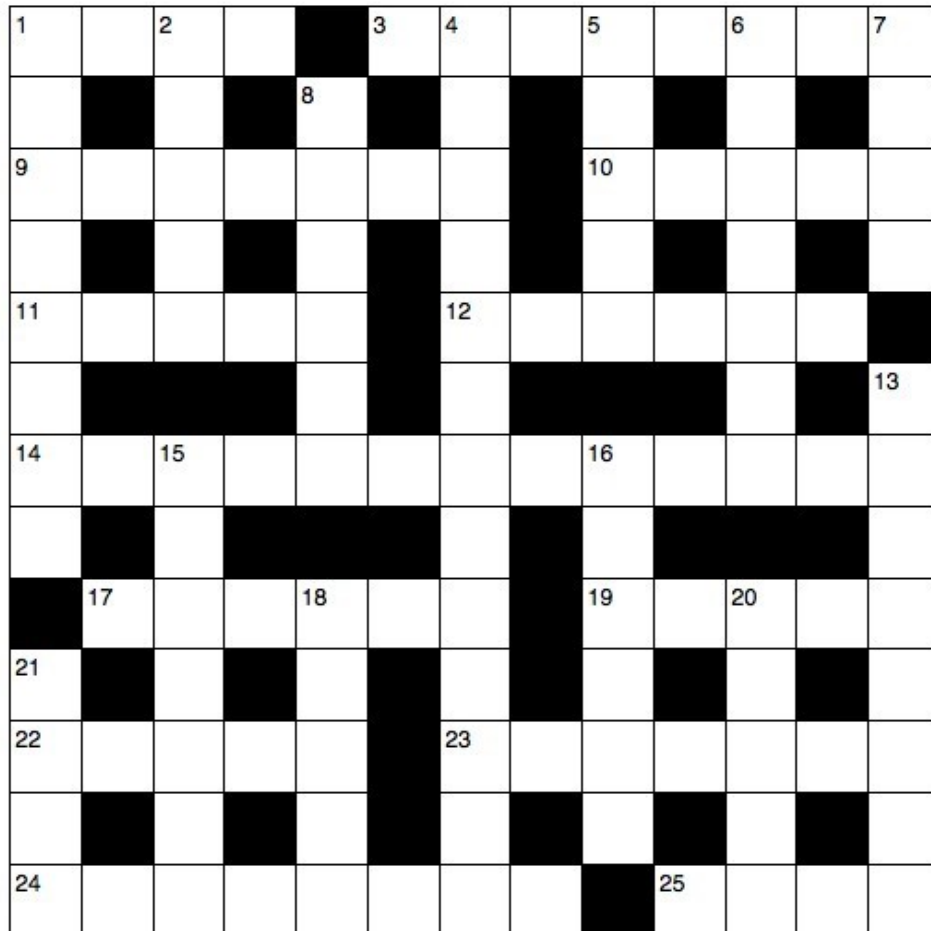

The next meeting of Xplore will coincide with the Half Term Pizza and Movie Night with the Confirmation Class, from 6.30 – 8.30pm on Monday 13th February. This will be a fun opportunity for regular Xplore members and new members from the Confirmation Class to get to know each other.

Bishops' Roadshow – 'Some aspects of the Reformation'

The Bishop of Clogher, the Rt Rev John McDowell will travel around three venues across the Clogher Diocese to address parishioners in an informal manner. This event is being hosted by the Dean and Chapter of St Macartin's Clogher and St Macartin's Enniskillen and is styled on last year's event which was well attended at each venue. This year the chosen topic is 'Some aspects of the Reformation'. In 2017 many Christians will be commemorating the anniversary of the Reformation in Germany. As Luther discovered himself reconciled to Christ by faith, we remember that God has reconciled us through Jesus Christ, whose love compels us to be ministers of reconciliation. Everyone is welcome. The same talk will be given each venue. You are invited to attend the closest or most convenient.

14th February @ 7.30pm – St Macartin's Cathedral, Enniskillen

21st February @7.30pm – St Patrick's Church, Monaghan

28th February @7.30pm – St Macartin's Cathedral, Clogher

Thursdays at 11.00am

Service of Holy Communion (30 minutes) , followed by a cup of tea/coffee – now 30-40 attending each week.

We are encouraging parishioners who may be in Enniskillen shopping on Thursday mornings to drop in for this short service – a mid week pause and praise with God!

Organisations

'The Lord's Prayer' & 'The Creeds' are important parts of our corporate worship, however, have you ever paused to have a closer look at them? Why are they phrased as they are? Why are they so important for the growth of our Christian life and faith?

Pilgrim is a teaching and discipleship course. It aims to create a place where people can explore the Christian faith together and see how it can be lived out each day in their own lives.

On 7th March, our most recently formed Pilgrim group will begin a new booklet based on The Lord's Prayer.

On 28th February, our established Pilgrim group will begin their new booklet having a closer look at The Creeds.

Please come and join us, you will find it very worthwhile and you will be very welcome.

WHO! Everyone is welcome to come along, there is something for everyone, from those who have little Bible knowledge to the theologians amongst us!

WHAT! The course is divided into eight separate booklets with six sessions in each – one session is covered each night we meet.

WHEN! Pilgrim continues on the first and third Tuesday night of the month for those in the newly formed group and the second and fourth Tuesday for the established group. However, you are not restricted to just one group, everyone is welcome to come along to both groups.

WHERE! Due to our halls' renovation we meet in Jenny's Coffee shop, 1 Middleton Street, Enniskillen - so you can be assured that tea & coffee and something sweet is on hand.

WHY! Simple! It was the first thing Jesus did in his ministry and it was the last thing he told his disciples to do – 'make disciples.'

The Christian faith is a journey and we all need encouragement and places and spaces where we can ask honest questions and grow, Pilgrim provides this and much more.

Interested? If you have any questions have a chat with Rev Olie.
