The Dean Writes:

Dear Parishioners,

Last month on the 11th June we remembered the life of St Barnabas. His real name was Joseph, a wealthy Levite from Cyprus. However, he was known by his nickname 'Son of Encouragement' (Acts 4:36).

Throughout Acts we see him encouraging others in different ways. He was an example of generous giving (Acts 4:36-7), when he sold property and offered the money to the church for those in need. In the midst of a caring and sharing community, he was singled out as a symbol of generosity. We too need to be prepared to be generous to the church and to those in need around us!

Barnabas later encouraged a new Christian in the person of Paul (Acts 9:27). After Paul's conversion and aware of his reputation, Barnabas came alongside him and brought him into the fellowship of the church. Are we ready to help those who are new to this area (or have no church connections) find a place in our church? Watch out for strangers and visitors over the summer months and welcome them!

Barnabas was sent to the church in Antioch where he 'saw the evidence of the grace of God' (Acts 11:23). It was a church which brought Jewish and Gentile believers together for the first time. Like Barnabas, do we rejoice when we see God doing new things in people's lives? Are we also willing to embrace these things and facilitate change? We need to be willing to welcome everyone regardless of any differences!

Encouragement is one of the spiritual gifts in the New Testament (Romans 12:8). It can be greatly undervalued, but it is still crucial in growing the church. Like Barnabas, will we nurture gifting; strengthen the doubters and those tempted to give up; show generosity to God's people and will we strengthen people to move beyond their own comfort zones to help those in need?

If you are fortunate enough to get away on holiday that is good, but if not a few quiet days at home may be just as refreshing. God designed us to need rest at every level of life, from physical to emotional to spiritual. So, I do hope that you all have a pleasant and refreshing summer whether at home or on holiday and may you experience the love of God and be able to share that love with those whom you come into contact with, and like Barnabas be an encouragement to them.

'Therefore encourage one another and build each other up.'
(1st Thessalonians 5:11)

Yours very sincerely,

Kenneth R J Hall

Parish Visiting

Since parish visiting will not be possible for some time yet, I would appeal to parishioners to let us know if you are unwell or know someone who is unwell. We can arrange some form of contact to be made depending on what restrictions are in place at that time.

A Service of Holy Communion is held each Thursday at 11.00am. Those who usually attend the early Sunday morning and Sunday evening services should consider (if not working) attending the Thursday service, as it is much quieter than the 11.00am Sunday morning service.

Scott Commissioned as Parish Reader

Scott Elliott has been a life-long member of St Macartin's Cathedral, being Baptised and Confirmed here, and has become a familiar face to everyone as he assists at all our services. He grew up on the family farm just outside Lisbellaw and is the second eldest of six children to Jim and Linda Elliott (His father was Churchwarden in 2014). He has already completed his Bachelor of Theology (BTh) at Queen's University Belfast and is hoping to pursue a call to ordination when the time is right, but in the meantime is employed in local government administration in Enniskillen. Scott has also completed his training as a Parish Reader and was Commissioned by the Bishop of Clogher on Wednesday 16th June.

Confirmation

The Confirmation Class of 2019/2020 have at last been Confirmed! All were prepared and ready for Confirmation on Sunday 15th March 2020 only to be disappointed by the cancellation two days beforehand, due to the danger of spreading Covid 19.

Pictured above with the Bishop, Dean and the Churchwardens, Linda Kingston and Audrey Williamson are the candidates (in alphabetical order): Jonah Balfour, Maddison Blair, Alex Boyd, Ewan Evans, Madeline Hamill, Joshua Hicks, Jamie Hood, Scott Hood, Leah Irwin, Jacob Jones, Ben Millar, Annabel Morrison, Lucy Rogers, Jessica Saunderson, Matthew Shaw, William Shaw, Alfie Weir and Carl Wilkin.

Cathedral Restoration Project

Parishioners will be pleased to see that work has started on the roof and stonework restoration on the cathedral. Putting up the scaffolding was quite a challenging process. Getting the scaffolding onto the site before erection commenced was an involved procedure. A large crane was located in the Deanery yard which unloaded the scaffolding structures from a lorry parked in Hall's Lane before transferring them over the wall between the Deanery yard and the graveyard. The crane operator was presented with many difficulties, one being the fact that he could not see over the wall to where the scaffolding structures were being placed in the graveyard. He was assisted in this process by a colleague in the graveyard who was in contact with the driver by phone. The driver was given precise instructions by phone so that the scaffolding material could be placed safely in the graveyard without damaging any of the headstones.

The crane driver delivers scaffolding to the graveyard with instructions from his colleague using a mobile phone.

Cathedral Restoration Project

The next phase of preparation was the erection of the scaffolding. The main scaffolding structure for the first phase of the work is on the east wall of the cathedral. This not only provides access to the east window and pinnacles that require restoration work but also access along the valleys on either side of the high roof. This will enable work to start on the high roof which will be re-slatted using new Welsh slates. The old slates from the high roof will be carefully inspected and those that are in good condition will be used along with the salvaged good quality slates from the lower roofs to re-slate the lower roofs.

Members of the Select Vestry inspected the erected scaffolding following their meeting on the evening of Monday 7th June.

Cathedral Roof Fund Raising

Slate Tickets

The book of Slate Tickets that was issued to each Family in March provided you with an opportunity to sell slates for the Cathedral Roof to non-parishioners - eg family, friends or neighbours. If every family helped out this fund raiser could raise £100,000, but if some do not we will fall short in our target to do so.

If you have not already made your returns can you please do so asap?

Total Costs

The full cost of reroofing is in the region of £450,000, and unfortunately, we cannot at present run any fund-raising activities so we are depending on each family playing their part and helping out.

Yellow Envelopes

It is also vitally important that parishioners use the Yellow Envelopes for their own personal giving to the roof fund. The project started the 2nd of June and will end on the 26th November, therefore all the expenditure will come in this Financial Year.

Summary

Yellow Envelopes – your own personal giving
Slate Tickets – an opportunity for you to collect money from others.
This is your Cathedral please help!

Please note

If for some reason you never received a book of 'Slate tickets' and would still like to assist with providing 20 slates for the Cathedral Roof please contact the Cathedral Office or the Churchwardens. 30 books are still unsold and available.

Your help and assistance would be very much appreciated.

The story behind the Hymn: 'Lord, for the years'

*Lord, for the years your love has kept and guided,
urged and inspired us, cheered us on our way,
sought us and saved us, pardoned and provided:
Lord for the years, we bring our thanks today.*

This well-loved hymn was written in 1967 by the Revd Timothy Dudley Smith, who later became Bishop of Thetford. He later confessed: "I wrote it on a train when I was very pressed for time. I'm thankful if something I write gets picked up, but I suspect anyone who does something in a rush later regrets that they didn't find time to apply the sandpaper a bit more!" Dudley Smith had been asked to write a hymn for the centenary service of the Children's Special Service Mission, now Scripture Union, in St Paul's Cathedral. His commission was to write words that could be fitted to Jean Sibelius's Finlandia, as it was to be accompanied by an orchestra with this tune in their repertoire. And so – 'Lord for the years' was written. Dudley Smith need not have worried about lack of time – his lyrics were a 'hit' in the cathedral on the day, and went on to become so well-loved that George Carey chose the hymn to be sung at his consecration as Bishop of Bath and Wells, and then again later, in 1991, for his consecration as Archbishop in Canterbury Cathedral.

The hymn continued to be widely sung and loved, until in 2002 Timothy Dudley Smith was asked to write an extra verse for it so that it could be sung around the time of the Queen's Golden Jubilee. Many of the words in the hymn are true for the Queen herself, as she celebrated her 95th birthday this year. She does indeed thank God 'for the years your love has kept and guided, urged and inspired us, cheered us on our way'...

And so indeed the 'extra' verse added for the Queen has also held true:

*Lord for our hopes, the dreams of all our living,
Christ and his kingdom one united aim,
Rulers and peoples bound in high thanksgiving,
Lord of our hopes, our trust is in your Name.*

This Hymn was sung in the presence of Her Majesty The Queen at the Service of Thanksgiving to mark her Diamond Jubilee in St Macartin's Cathedral on 26th June 2012.

Cathedral Family - John Owens

John Owens is the "Father of the House" when it comes to the Cathedral Choir! Having joined in 1962, initially singing bass but soon discovering the delights of singing tenor, John is currently the longest serving member of the Choir having clocked up nearly a staggering 60 years - he must know most hymns and chants like the back of his hand.

Education and employment

I was born in Derry on 16 December 1935. My brother was born in September 1939 just after World War II started. I went to the Model PS in Derry a month before my sixth birthday.

In February 1948 I moved to Foyle College, Derry. While I was at Foyle I was the youngest member of the team which took part in the radio quiz 'Top of the Form'. I also joined the Crusaders. After 'A' levels I went to Queen's University and graduated in 1957 with an Honours degree in English, French and Anglo-Saxon. I remained at Queen's and obtained a Diploma in Education in 1958. Part of this course was spent in the Psychology Department. The Prof of Psychology, observing my enthusiasm, suggested I should start work on a Psychology degree, in parallel with my Dip Ed. In 1959 I graduated with a Master's in Educational Psychology.

To become an Educational Psychologist you had to teach for at least two years. I applied for the post of Head of English in Limavady Grammar School and, to my great surprise, I was appointed. Little did I know that some years later I would marry one of my pupils, Margaret Acheson, who had impressed me by her piano playing! After teaching for three years I was appointed as the first Educational Psychologist in Co. Fermanagh, starting work in August

1962. In 1973 education in NI was restructured and I became the Principal Psychologist with the Western Board. I retired in December 1999.

Interests and leisure activities

When I was 8 my mother thought I should learn to play the piano. A succession of piano teachers failed to enthuse me. In 1951 I started learning to play the organ in Christ Church, our family church. I enjoyed subbing in local churches and playing the huge organ in Derry Guildhall - for my own entertainment. I had been accompanying several groups – violins and recorders; however, I eventually thought that it might be a good idea to exchange the piano for the cello. Shortly after coming to Enniskillen in August 1962 I joined the Cathedral choir. In December 2018 I was diagnosed with throat cancer - radiotherapy cured the cancer but left singing difficult. Down the years I played the cello in several groups in Enniskillen and Derry. I love listening to music – Tudor church music and works, especially choral, by Bach, Handel, Mozart and Haydn as well as French organ music of the 19th century.

In my teenage years I built Mecanno models, went camping, cycled, played cricket, fished and serviced cars (a simple job in the 40s and 50s). For my 21st birthday I was given a camera from which stemmed my interest in photography. Over the past year I have started writing my memoirs – I dictate and Margaret types (occasionally editing!).

Holidays

When Margaret and I got married in 1968 for our honeymoon we put a tent and camping equipment in the boot of the Ford Cortina and drove through France, Switzerland and Italy to Venice. For several years our holidays with our two children, Helen and David, were spent camping in Ireland and Scotland. We also enjoyed exploring Lough Erne in our small cabin cruiser – often with the children camping on islands while we lay at anchor off-shore. When we bought our first motorhome in 1978 we travelled widely throughout Western Europe each summer. After I retired we travelled abroad more frequently until Covid struck.

Favourite hymns and Bible passages:

'And can it be' (218), 'According to thy gracious word' (396), 'At evening when the sun had set' (65), O for a thousand tongues to sing (104).

The Sermon on the Mount; the parable of the Good Samaritan; Ps. 139 where v.13 reminds us just how 'fearfully and wonderfully' we are made.

Prayer Books

Do you have a Prayer book in your home? If not you should have! We are a Prayer Book church and the Prayer Book should not just be on those shelves at the back of the church for use on Sunday, but there should be a copy of a Prayer Book in every home. Everything in it is biblically based and it is a vital tool to everyday living, for daily prayer, and for nourishment and for enriching our daily walk with God. As you leaf through the Prayer Book you will find services and prayers for daily use, and for every situation and worry in life. It is a marvellous resource so use it. Copies are available from the Cathedral Office for £20.00 and would make an ideal gift!

Psalm

Psalm 27 - David's confidence in and desire for God.

The Lord is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life,
of whom shall I be afraid?

— Psalm 27:1

(1-3) The Lord is my light and my salvation: Like many psalms, King David wrote this from a season of trouble. Yet it is a song of confidence and triumph: because David was not in darkness or ultimate peril because the Lord was his light and salvation. The Lord is the strength of my life: David was a skilled, experienced warrior and must have been a man of impressive physical strength. Nevertheless, he looked to the Lord as the strength of his life. Of whom shall I be afraid? David used the poetic tool of repetition to make his point and bring together parallel ideas. Because God was his light, his salvation, and his strength, there was really no reason to fear or be afraid. When the wicked came against me...they stumbled and fell: David remembered how God had proven Himself reliable in the past. There were times when the wicked or even an army came against him, yet God still showed that He was David's light, his salvation, and his strength. In this will I be confident: Because of his confidence in the Lord, the psalmist is not afraid. In his inner being there is no fear.

PSALMS

Best Book in the Bible

(4) One thing I have desired of the Lord: The tone of the song suddenly changes from celebration to contemplation. The experience of the goodness and greatness of God made David think about how wonderful it is to seek Him and to experience His presence. That I may dwell in the house of the Lord: David wished he could live in the tabernacle itself, surrounded every day by the presence and beauty of God.

(5) To behold the beauty of the Lord: David knew there was beauty in the nature and presence of God, beauty that could be perceived by the seeking eye of faith. He could think of no greater occupation than to fill his mind and heart with the goodness and greatness of God.

(11-14) Teach me Your way, O Lord: This was a simple prayer for a life of true discipleship. David didn't want to live his way, but the Lord's way. Wait on the Lord; be of good courage: Here King David spoke to you and to me, to his readers. From the reservoir of his experience he can encourage us to seek after God (Wait on the LORD) and to take courage in Him (be of good courage).

Wait for the LORD;
Be strong and let your
heart take courage;
Yes, wait for the LORD.
Psalm 27:14

Mothers' Union

Jenifer, Sally and Maud had great pleasure in visiting Dorothy Foster on the happy occasion of her 90th birthday. Amongst the many cards, flowers and goodwill messages Dorothy was enjoying her special day. We brought her a gift and best wishes from our Mothers' Union which she really appreciated.

On 21st May some of our ladies attended the drive in concert, Time for Hope, organized by the Clogher Diocesan Trustee Board. A very well organized event and a lovely evening was had, with the opportunity to purchase a CD or DVD of the evening. If anyone would like to buy a copy please let Jenifer know (£10).

Wishing you all a lovely summer and hope the sun continues to shine.

Youth

The Children and Youth team would like to say a big thank you to everyone for all your support this year! No one knew what this year would look like, but we were delighted to still be able to offer Sunday Lights + Cafe and Messy Church online and we appreciate all your lovely feedback. We hope you have enjoyed these sessions at home as much as we enjoyed making them. All previous sessions will remain available on our Google Drive.

All Children and Youth organisations are now taking a break for the summer and will resume (hopefully in person- depending on restrictions) in the Autumn. All updates will be posted to our social media pages and included in the weekly emails from Beth. If you need to get in touch before then, our inbox is always open. Until then, we look forward to seeing what God has in store for the year ahead. Have a lovely summer and stay safe!

“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.” - Jeremiah 29: 11
