The Dean Writes:

Dear Parishioners,

Christmas Day and Easter Sunday are two days in which many people who are not regular parishioners attend church, however there are many more who only attend for baptisms, weddings and funerals. Why do we go to church? Why do we worship God? The excuses and attitudes of people, who do not attend church, are interesting to say the least. Excuses are truly amazing! Excuses are much like a rocking chair: it gives you something to do but doesn't take you anywhere!

Yet, for many, worshipping God is pure joy. It is a normal part of their lives. God's presence is as familiar and natural as breathing. They come to church enthused about worshipping God and being with His people. They do not come because of the clergy, or the music, or the people. Their main motivation is to meet with and worship God. If you get in the right attitude and motivation you too will enjoy coming to church.

David speaks of this in Psalm 84. This Psalm was apparently written when David was forced to leave Jerusalem during Absalom's rebellion, and David was distressed about leaving God's House. David had a strong desire for God's House - "How lovely is your dwelling place, O Lord Almighty! My soul yearns, even faints, for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God." (verses 1,2).

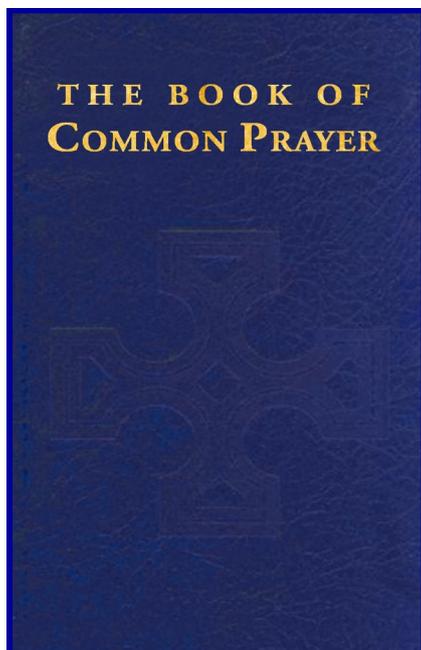

Today, more than anything else we need God's presence. Worship provides strength for the day - "Blessed are those whose strength is in you" (verse 4). We gain strength from God's presence and fellowship with His people. The more you desire to come to the house of worship, the stronger in faith you will become. Conversely, the more you stay away, the weaker in faith you become. There is nothing mystical or magical about that. It's a fact of life. Worship is not just a spiritual "warmer" on Sunday morning. It is God's people actively responding to him. Worship is not a spectator sport. Worship is not something done to us or for us, but by us. Time spent in worship with the Lord strengthens your inner spiritual being. Be faithful to the Lord and His Church, and watch yourself become strengthened spiritually.

Yours very sincerely,

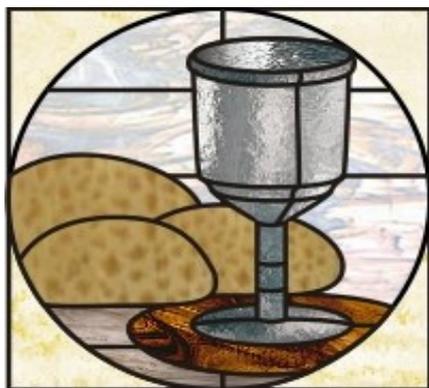

Kenneth R J Hall

Prayer Books

Do you have a Prayer book in your home? If not you should have! We are a Prayer Book church and the Prayer Book should not just be on those shelves at the back of the church for use on Sunday, but there should be a copy of a Prayer Book in every home. Everything in it is biblically based and it is a vital tool to everyday living, for daily prayer, and for nourishment and for enriching our daily walk with God. As you leaf through the Prayer Book you will find services and prayers for daily use, and for every situation and worry in life. It is a marvellous resource so use it. Copies are available from the Cathedral Office for £20.00 and would make an ideal gift!

Thursdays at 11.00am

Service of Holy Communion (30 minutes): We are encouraging parishioners who may be in Enniskillen shopping on Thursday mornings to drop in for this short service – a mid-week pause and praise with God!

The Dean's Other Flock!

Did you know that the Dean is a Chicken Fancier?

Pictured left is the other flock the Dean tends when not busy with Church activities. Maybe you have heard a rooster crow, when walking up Hall's Lane, past the Deanery?

You can take the man out of the county but you can't take the country out of the man!!

Nor would we want to.

The new Rector's Churchwarden, Dwayne Nixon, and People's Churchwarden, Ann Little, are pictured with the Dean and Parish Reader, Mrs Adele Moore, on the first morning in their new role, Sunday 14th April.

Bowling Tournament

The bowling Club has had a very successful year.

After playing all of the league matches in our section, we have gained promotion to Section C from D for the 2024/2025 season. Congratulations to all our members.

We finished on 27 March for the season and after playing bowls, the ladies served up a lovely cup of tea. One couple, Andy and Peggy Wray, were celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary on 1st April and their daughter, Amanda, brought in a cake and every member received a piece.

We then had a raffle and the first prize went to Andy Wray and second prize to Laura Lunny.

Cathedral Family

Rector's Churchwarden:
Dwayne Nixon

Dwayne is married to Christina and has two children, Louisa and Jack.

Tell us about yourself and your family.

I was born in Ballinamallard, where I still live today with my family. I have two brothers, one older and one younger. I attended Ballinamallard Primary school, Portora Royal and finally University of Ulster. In 2014 I married Christina, it was also my first introduction to the Cathedral. We have two children, Louisa and Jack who successfully manage to keep us all busy!

What are your hobbies and interests?

Sports in general although mainly as a spectator these days! Football, rugby, golf, although football usually tops the list when Liverpool are playing. I also enjoy spending time together as a family particularly holidays abroad and trips away.

What is your favourite hymn?

My favourite hymn is 'Abide With Me'.

As a Cathedral Family we sometimes know very little about each other. This article is one way to find out more. Others ways are to join some of the Cathedral organisations, stay behind for coffee/tea and a chat after the Family Service (Fourth Sunday of each month) or very simply just speak to someone in the pews beside you on a Sunday morning.

We want St Macartin's to be a warm and welcome place.

"A friend is someone who reaches out for your hand... and touches your heart." – Unknown

Cathedral Family

Peoples' Churchwarden:
Ann Little

Ann is married to Albert and has three children, Stuart, Lisa and Louise.

Tell us about your early days.

I was born and raised in Enniskillen. I grew up with three siblings, one of whom is my twin sister. I attended Enniskillen Model Primary School and moved on to Enniskillen High School. I have always been a member of the Cathedral and have seen much growth throughout my time there. Furthermore, I am married to Albert with three children and two grandchildren with whom I spend a lot of time.

What are your hobbies and interests?

I have always enjoyed being active, going swimming and walking regularly. I would class myself as an animal person and look after many cats. I am interested in property design and love having projects to do especially if they're in the garden.

What is your favourite hymn?

As the 'Deer Pants for the Water' is a lovely hymn and I also love 'Be Still for the Presence of the Lord'.

Favourite film

Any film with Denzel Washington is a good choice. He is a brilliant actor and role model.

What is your favourite place you have travelled?

One place that really resonates with me is Egypt, it is full of culture and history. I have also enjoyed swimming with dolphins.

The Ascension – Thursday 9th May

While He was blessing them, Jesus left them and was taken up into heaven.' (Luke 24:51).

The Ascension is a hugely neglected festival, which deserves to have a bigger place in our church life. How do we understand it?

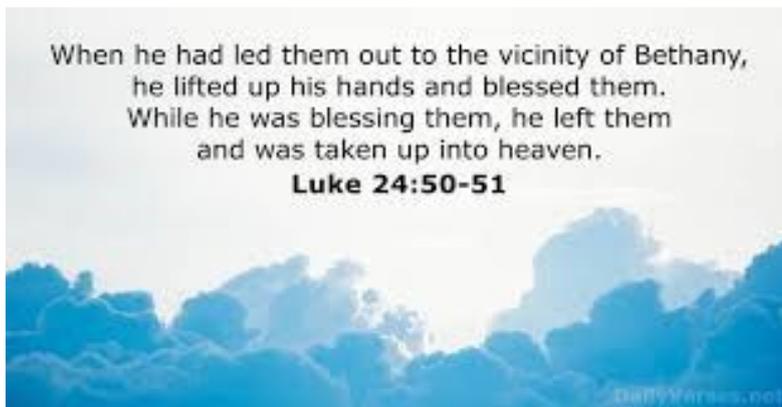

The Ascension tells us that Jesus is in control: 'Jesus has gone into heaven and is at God's right hand' (1 Peter 3:22). Jesus occupies the top spot in the universe; the control of our world is in the safe, scarred hands of Jesus. We can offer Him our worship and allegiance, knowing that His plans are better than those of any Prime Minister or President.

The Ascension tells us that God is committed to His world: 'And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus' (Ephesians 2:6). Jesus did not leave His humanity behind when He ascended, for we are raised with Christ to heaven. Therefore, God is bound to His world and we can trust Him to fulfil His purposes for our lives and world.

The Ascension gives us a job to do: 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations' (Matthew 28:18,19). God's way of working in the world is through us. He commissions us for this task at the Ascension and equips us at Pentecost. We are called to make disciples, starting in our workplace, family and community.

'Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which He looks compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which He blesses all the world.' (Teresa of Avila).

Know your Cathedral - The East Window

The Church has taught since ancient times that Eden was in the East, and that the second coming of Christ will happen in the East, and so the special significance of this cardinal direction for church buildings is marked in many ways. In St Macartin's Cathedral we have a splendid East Window which draws on this tradition by depicting four scenes of resurrection from the Bible. Our curate, Revd Edwin will be writing about each of these scenes over the coming months.

Reading the window from north to south the stories show a sense of progression: from someone just dead, to someone being buried, to someone who has been in the grave, to Christ himself, dead and resurrected.

The first panel depicts the story, which is found in all three synoptic gospels, of the raising of Jairus's Daughter. This twelve year old girl was brought back to life after her father's pleas to Jesus, and her story perhaps more than anything else reminds us of the nature of suffering, and how this it is the same, regardless of status. Jairus is a leader of the synagogue, here a representative of the leaders of society, of the status quo. Jairus not only approaches Jesus but kneels before him to plead his cause: he reminds us that life happens: people get sick and people die, regardless of their positions, their accomplishments or their wealth. Christ listens to his pleas, and acts on them: the incarnate Word is deeply interested in human life and death, living and dying. Christ visits the house of the death, and in the glass of the window we see the moment where he reaches for the dead girl's hand and raises her to life.

Of course what the window does not depict is the story that is so closely interwoven with this one: that of the woman who had been bleeding for all twelve years of Jarius's daughter's life. And through Jesus's actions there is more than one gift of new life in this story: more than one resurrection. Jesus heals her as well, bringing her back into the community from which she had been banished, and her life can begin again. Jesus was forbidden by the rules of religious purity to touch either of these women, but in breaking those rules conquered death and brought new life.

St Macartin's Cathedral, Parenting Wellness Group

Going from Strength to Strength

The Parenting Wellness Group had their first gathering on 9th April 2022. There were three families in attendance and they enjoyed a lovely chat with a representative from The Aisling Centre who focused on the very importance of Self-Care for parents. Fast forward two years, there are now sixty-one families in the group. This group gives parents and children an opportunity to come together, once per month, to communicate and support each other. Examples of activities over the past two years have included the following: Yoga, Gymnastics, Games/Sports, Art Lesson, Mindfulness and Art/Craft, National Trust Walks, Clay Workshop, Messy Play, Healthy Eating, Visit to CAFRE, Afternoon Tea, Parenting Tips, The Sand Box, Oakwood Bushcraft, Connecting with Horses, Movement to Music, Groove and Glide Roller-skating and Hip Hop Dancing.

The sessions always end with tea/coffee, snacks and lots of chatting!

This is what some who attend say: "It has brought together parents from different walks of life in a welcoming and safe environment, where parents and kids can be together and interact with each other in a safe space. It reduces the feeling of loneliness and builds new connections between families that otherwise would not be possible without this project. Linda is a super host that puts so much heart in every single event and I am so grateful for her dedication and patience that it takes to make all this happen! Thank you." "The project gave families within the community the opportunity to meet and get to know one another in a relaxed environment. We also gained very helpful information."

The Parenting Wellness Group will meet on Saturday 18th May in St. Macartin's Cathedral Hall at 2.00pm. Two representatives from The Police Service of Northern Ireland will be in attendance. This will be an interactive workshop to include topics such as Road Safety, Crime Prevention, Internet Safety and more! Refreshments provided afterwards. Children of all ages and their parents are welcome to attend. For more information or to reserve a place, please contact Linda Kingston on 07342045474.

Brother and Sister Rugby Star's

Over the Easter period, two of our young parishioners from the Irwin family participated in representative rugby.

Jake (16) played for the Ulster Schools U18 team against Munster at Limerick University. Jake played outside centre for the second half with their team winning 55-5. This was a great achievement as Jake had major shoulder surgery in May 2023. While Jake was in Limerick, Leah (17) was travelling to North Wales to represent Ireland Women's U18 team in the Six Nations Festival at Colwyn

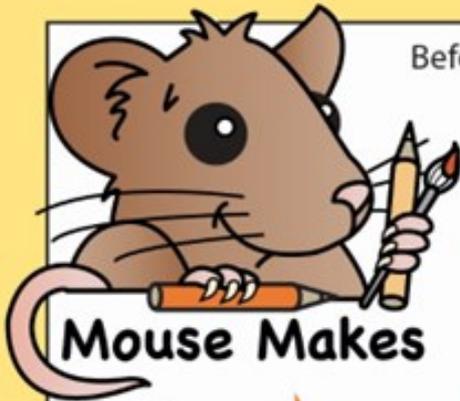

Bay. The rest of the family travelled over the following day. Leah made her debut for Ireland on Friday 29th March versus Italy, where she captained the team and scored a try in a convincing 20-0 win. The following Tuesday, she played against Wales, winning 12-5. She also came on off the bench against France on the same day, unfortunately they lost. On the final day of the festival, Leah who was vice captain of the team, played the match against Scotland, which they convincingly won 48-5. These matches can be seen on YouTube.

Both Leah and Jake have trained very hard throughout the season, and we are delighted that their efforts are being recognised by Ulster and Irish Rugby.
