The Dean Writes:

Dear Parishioners,

We are all different despite our trying to conform, we look different, we think differently, we talk differently and have different values. These differences have consequences and often fuel conflict and disagreement, despite the saying that variety is the spice of life. We disagree about little things, and we argue about big things. For example, dress codes, ethnicity, politics, and religion. Though we are probably a bit more reluctant to make our views known mindful of the consequences, we have learned to navigate some difference and we live with it. At our best, we may even celebrate it, because sometimes difference enriches us!

However, in various parts of the world and through time, the differences have been pushed to the limit leading to violent clashes and bloodshed in two world wars and many other wars. Therefore Remembrance Day is held as a day to commemorate the contribution of millions who lost their lives – both military personnel and civilians.

Whatever we think if we are to reimagine the future of our community, our nation and our world, then we must continue to live on that well-worn path of being able to argue well and live creatively with difference, without ending up with casualties. We must recall those times when arguments have gone beyond words. We must also remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those who lost their lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present.

We long for love, friendship, welcome, acceptance, mercy, forgiveness, hope and, perhaps most important for today, and peace. These are words that unite rather than divide and as God's followers today we are challenged to live them and so in some small way anticipate the Kingdom of God of which Jesus often spoke.

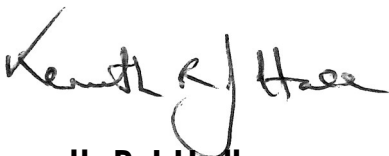

That means being determined to attain and maintain peace, we must keep trying to argue well and hold what differences we have creatively. We are all different and thank God we are, for if we were all the same then life would be rather dull.

However, at this Remembrance time we come together as one, to renew our commitment to seek all that makes for peace. However, faced with the evil of the world we can sometimes feel powerless. Even when we cannot do much about the war-torn regions of our world we can, in our lives, in our arguments and disagreements, strive to live a different way, a way of peace and reconciliation.

As 1st Thessalonians 3:11,12 says - 'May our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you. And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you.'

While we will always argue or debate, let us strive to play our part in building a world in which all have a valued place, where none is left behind and where all can live in peace.

Yours very sincerely,

Kenneth R J Hall

Parish Visitations

The Clergy and the Diocesan Pastoral Assistant are continually making visits around the parish, but these are often prioritised by sickness and bereavement calls. As we have now well over 600 families emergency calls are quite numerous. Sometimes we are not in the right place at the right time and that is where you can help. If for some reason you are ill, have been ill or bereaved, please let us know by contacting the Cathedral Office and someone will call with you. No contact may well result in no visit through no fault of the clergy! If you or a member of your family is in hospital please inform us otherwise we may not know. Help us to help you!

Shoebox Appeal

Operation Christmas Child began in the UK in 1990, a tangible message of hope for children in the toughest of circumstances.

Every year since, Samaritan's Purse has collected shoebox gifts filled with toys, school supplies, and hygiene items for children around the world. Since 1990, more than 178 million children in more than 150 countries have received an Operation Christmas Child shoebox. The project delivers not only the joy of what, for many kids, is their first gift ever, but also gives them a tangible expression of God's love.

Get an empty medium sized shoebox, and wrap the box and lid separately in colourful wrapping paper or order preprinted shoeboxes online. Attach the appropriate boy/girl label, marking if your gift is for a boy or a girl. Select an age category 2-4, 5-9 or 10-14 and attach the label to the top of your shoebox. Fill your shoebox with a selection of fun toys, hygiene items and school supplies. If possible, include one or two special items you know a child will love such as a doll, cuddly toy or deflated football with pump. A suggested donation of £5 is essential to cover project costs, including shipping, to enable a local church or group overseas to lead a safe, well-organised children's event where your shoebox will be given to a child in need.

Leaflets and boxes are available in the church porch. You can collect these on a Sunday or Thursday morning. All shoe boxes need to be returned at the latest by Sunday 17th November.

Psalm 48

The Psalm

Part of what gives the Psalms their enduring beauty and power is that in any one Psalm, at any one moment, we are invited to think, and do, and be, more than one thing at the same time.

Our liturgy recognizes this multi-layered spirituality at every single service where we are invited to worship: the Psalms is the only book of the Bible from which we read (or sing!) at every service. Psalm 48 is this manifold mysticism at its best.

Psalm 48 is a pilgrim psalm, and we can journey with the psalmist towards Jerusalem and into the city, eventually into the Temple and back out into the city, to read its architecture and structure with eyes newly-sensitized to the divine. Pilgrimage is of course about what we bring, what we experience and what we take away from the journey. This pilgrim band clearly loves their city, loves the closeness of God that they feel there, and loves to tell others about it. And yet if we leave our understanding of the Psalm at that level, we quickly run into problems: to praise the pre-eminence of Jerusalem quite so strongly in political terms was just as problematic when the Psalmist wrote as it would be today. Even if we consider the psalmist as a zealous nationalist, or simply a naïve patriot, there are still problems. Jerusalem is certainly built on hills, but only in a spiritual sense could Zion be considered a mount. The city is definitely an enduring site of settlement, but no one could say that its attackers, of whom there have been many, flee in terror at its sight, nor have they been regularly repelled. And the psalmist knew this too. While it captures the joy of experience and togetherness that pilgrims had and still have today, this psalm is asking us to look beyond that to something more fundamental. The psalmist is using the gift of poetry, and a poetic imagination, to lift our thoughts beyond the everyday. Here the physical world is re-shaped by spiritual experience. Here poetry offers us an alternative view of the world around us, and, as we might expect, it's about God. One small and ordinary city becomes the focus for God's rule in all times and in all places. No one who visits Jerusalem can leave unchanged, despite its apparent ordinariness. In Christianity we have no city like Jerusalem: and yet, we can understand the Psalmist's paradoxical perspective. For us what appeared to be the routine execution of a common criminal in the distant past is an event that has marked time and space in a way that nothing else has. In a way that is just as specific, as ordinary and as strange as the devotion to a middle eastern hill town, we claim a universal importance for the life and death of a particular Jewish man from more 2000 years ago. The same set of events means more than one thing at once. Neither the idolization of Jerusalem nor the worship of Jesus Christ will immediately end the suffering of humanity or the guard against the fragility of human life, but in common with the writer of Psalm 48, we proclaim the sovereignty of God, and we claim to live by that reality.

MU Civic Reception

On 30th September we were invited by the Chair of FODC, Councillor McClaughry, to a Reception in the Townhall to celebrate our 120th Anniversary. The Chair presented our Branch Leader, Jenifer, with a Belleek Vase to acknowledge our milestone. After speeches from the Chair, Jenifer, The Dean and Councillors Keith Elliott and Roy Crawford we were treated to some delicious refreshments. We moved then to the Chamber where the Chair enlightened us to the format of Council meetings. He invited Jenifer to take the Chair for our brief MU meeting. A moment in history. We had a fabulous and most memorable meeting. RISE UP Against Domestic Abuse is MU's campaign to raise awareness about domestic abuse across Britain and Ireland. We are delighted to record that we have gained the Bronze Award. Our next meeting is on Monday 11th November at 7.30pm with Christmas treats by Adele.

Solar panels for the Cathedral Hall

The Select Vestry is currently making arrangements to have solar panels fitted on the south west facing roof surface of the Cathedral Hall. This will save expenditure on electricity used in the hall. Furthermore, it will help to reduce the Cathedral properties' dependence on fossil fuels for heat and lighting. The cathedral properties have a high dependency on oil and electricity for heating and lighting and powering equipment. Government policy is to reduce dependency on fossil fuels as they contribute to global warming.

Cathedral Hall roof

The Church of England has already adopted a policy to become Net Zero or free from the use of fossil fuels by 2030. In doing so it recognises that the global climate emergency is a crisis for God's creation and is an injustice. The installation of the solar panels on the Cathedral Hall will make a worthwhile contribution to reducing the Cathedral properties' carbon foot print. Estimates obtained indicate that the installation will reduce carbon dioxide emissions in excess of 4,000 kg per year.

Sunlight on the panels generate direct current which then goes through an inverter converting the electricity into alternating current which is the usable form of electricity. The electricity generated can be used directly or if the amount generated exceeds what is required the excess can be sold into the grid. It is proposed to install a battery with the solar panels so that excess electricity beyond immediate requirements can be stored for future use. The installation of a battery also opens up the potential to buy in electricity under a night tariff which is considerably cheaper than daytime rates.

It has been claimed that the installation costs of the solar panels (£21,000) will be recovered within six and half years and over a 25 year period the savings could be in excess of £50,000.

A fund had been opened for those who would like to contribute to this worthwhile project.

The author
Samuel Boyd Morrow OBE BA graduated from Queen's University in 1939. His Civil Service career was in agriculture, finishing as Fermanagh's County Agricultural Officer. In his last two years, before retirement in 1996, he served as Principal of Enniskillen Agricultural College in addition to his role as County Agricultural Officer. His education in Fermanagh was at Clabby Primary School and then Portora Royal School. In his youth he worshipped in St Margaret's Parish Church, Clabby. He has been a member of Enniskillen parish since 1966 and a member of its select vestry since 1968. He has served periods as churchwarden, glebe warden and has been honorary secretary of the select vestry since 1989. He has written four other books, two on agricultural matters and two on church history. Those dealing with church affairs are titled: The Church of Ireland Parishes of Tempo and Clabby – a Shared Heritage; and: Clabby on the Map – The Church of Ireland Parishes of Clabby and its People.

The cup presented by Edward Davis to 1122 is still in use as the chalice of the Holy Communion in St Macartin's Cathedral. The inscription is Latin for: Presented to Latis by Parnassus Print & Design Ltd. Enniskillen 1122.
Presented this means: The cup of the Parish Church of Enniskillen, the gift of Edward Davis, 1122.

The book, in 42 chapters, records the establishment and development of the Church of Ireland Parish of Enniskillen and its church, now St Macartin's Cathedral. The church was established as part of the plan for the Plantation of Ulster by the Earl of Down, the Earl of Enniskillen and the Earl of Down. The church building dates from the early 1700s and since then its design and people have experienced many political, social, military and economic challenges. Enniskillen was a place of temporary refuge for King William against the army of King James II. The conflict led to the establishment of two British Army regiments bearing the names of the town, Inniskilling and the Inniskilling. The cathedral is home for many of the hall of records and memorials of these regiments and within its walls is the Inniskilling Regimental Chapel. In more recent times, St Macartin's Cathedral has made a major contribution in developing community relations and has loved the most important people in the United Kingdom and in Ireland stories of worship, maintenance and church going. Today, St Macartin's is committed to providing a welcoming home to all who are seeking to deepen and develop their spiritual lives and their relationship with God.

Prayer Books

THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER

Do you have a Prayer book in your home? If not you should have! We are a Prayer Book church and the Prayer Book should not just be on those shelves at the back of the church for use on Sunday, but there should be a copy of a Prayer Book in every home. Everything in it is biblically based and it is a vital tool to everyday living, for daily prayer, and for nourishment and for enriching our daily walk with God. As you leaf through the Prayer Book you will find services and prayers for daily use, and for every situation and worry in life. It is a marvellous resource so use it. Copies are available from the Cathedral Office for £20.00 and would make an ideal gift!

Choral Scholarships

If you have the talent and interest, you can help to form an integral part of St Macartin's Cathedral Choir, Enniskillen, and benefit from our new choral scholarships.

The Cathedral Choir sings at the weekly Sunday morning service at 11.00am, and occasionally at additional services throughout the year. Once or twice a year, the Choir visits churches and cathedrals further afield, to sing. Each year, commencing in September, St Macartin's offers up to ten Choral Scholarships; ideally at least two of each voice part (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass). It is useful, but not essential, for potential Choral Scholars to have relevant experience of singing in a choir, for example a church, school or community choir. For all Scholars, good sight-reading skills are desirable.

There are three types of scholarship available: Choral Scholar (Fulltime), Choral Scholar (Part-time) and Organ Scholar.

- Fulltime Choral Scholars receive an annual scholarship of £500 to assist with costs of tuition.
- Part-time Choral Scholars receive an annual scholarship of £250 to assist with costs of tuition.
- Organ Scholars receive an annual scholarship of £100 to assist with costs of tuition and have use of the Cathedral Organ for practice purposes provided the cathedral is available at the time and prior booking of the organ for practice has been made. Organ Scholars will also receive some introductory sessions from the Cathedral Organist to the Cathedral Organ and the musical aspects of worship at the Cathedral.

Choral Scholars, either fulltime or part-time, may also be Organ Scholars if they apply for and are awarded both scholarships.

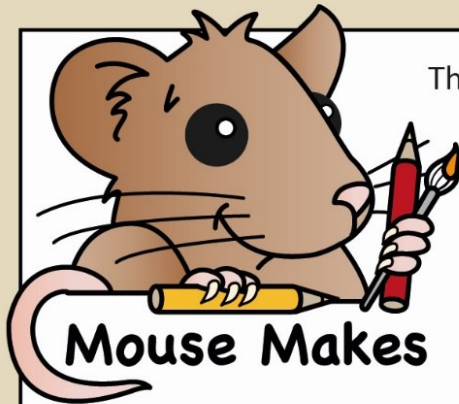

All Scholars are obliged to take lessons from an approved professional tutor in their chosen field of music. These lessons should be paid for by the Scholar/Parent/Guardian and financially assisted by the Scholarship award.
