Dear Parishioners,

November is the month that we have a solemn reminder of the immense price paid by those who stood firm in the face of danger, during World Wars and the Troubles in Northern Ireland, who served with courage and dedication, and who ultimately laid down their lives for the safety and security of others. We also remember the many civilians who lost their lives too.

As we reflect on their sacrifice, we are reminded of the many families left behind—families who had to navigate life without the guiding presence of a father, a mother, a husband, wife or a brother or sister. For many children, the only connection they have to their parent is a photograph, a fleeting memory, and the stories shared by those who loved them. It is heartbreaking to think of the dreams and futures that were abruptly cut short, of the cherished moments that families will never have the chance to experience together.

Wartime and the era of the Troubles was marked by fear and uncertainty. Many lived in trepidation, not knowing if they would return safely to their homes at night or whether they would be able to leave in the morning without incident. It was a turbulent time—a time that tested the very fabric of our communities and our nation. We need to remember not only the lives lost but also the profound impact of those losses on our communities.

As we remember those who have fallen, we must also reflect on our duty to ensure that their sacrifices were not in vain. We, who are left behind, carry the responsibility of honouring their legacy. We must strive to build a future that reflects the values they stood for—courage, integrity, and above all, love for one another.

In St John chapter 15, we find powerful words that resonate with the essence of love and sacrifice: "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. My command is this: "Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends."

These words remind us that true love is not merely a sentiment; it is an action. It is the willingness to put others before oneself, to sacrifice comfort and safety for the well-being of others. Each life lost is a reminder of the fragility of peace and the ongoing need for vigilance in our efforts to foster understanding and reconciliation. We must commit ourselves to a future where fear no longer holds sway over our hearts. Instead, let us embrace a spirit of unity and love, ensuring that the darkness of the past does not overshadow the light of our collective potential.

As we reflect on the sacrifices of those who lost their lives in the war or in the Troubles, we can draw strength from their legacy. They dared to dream of a better tomorrow, and we owe it to them to strive for that vision. Let us honour their memories not just with words, but with actions that reflect the love they demonstrated daily.

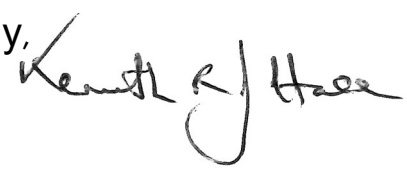

While we remember the sorrow of the past, we must also look toward the future with hope and determination. We can continue that legacy by fostering love and understanding within our communities. To love one another, as Christ commanded, means actively seeking to uplift one another, to support those in need, and to be a source of hope in times of darkness. It means standing together against division and hatred, choosing instead to build bridges of understanding and compassion.

The love that Jesus exemplified is not limited to a single act but is a continuous call to action. He laid down His life for us, offering us the gift of eternal life through faith in Him. This ultimate sacrifice is a powerful reminder of the depths of love we can aspire to, a love that transcends barriers and brings people together.

From this Remembrance Season onwards, let us carry forward the message of love and sacrifice that has echoed through the ages. Let us honour those who have fallen by committing ourselves to a path of peace, understanding, and service to one another. We owe it to those who came before us to ensure that their sacrifices are honoured through our actions. Let us be the bearers of hope and love in our communities, working tirelessly to create an atmosphere where fear and uncertainty are replaced by trust and compassion.

May we always remember the great love that was shown to us by Jesus Christ, and let this love guide us as we strive to build a brighter and more unified future for all.

Yours very sincerely,

Kenneth R J Hall, Rector and Dean

Parish Breakfast

On Saturday 26th September, a very successful Breakfast took place in the Cathedral Hall. Adele Moore, Margaret Burleigh, Andy McCabe and their band of willing helpers catered for over 300 people. The Dean thought they were mad, they probably thought they were too, during the morning! Glenn Moore entertained with music throughout the morning. £3,080 was raised for the two charities, The Aisling Centre and the Cathedral Out-reach Fund. Thank you to those who worked so hard during the morning, and to all those who supported the event.

Parish Breakfast

Harvest Thanksgiving Services

Our annual Harvest Thanksgiving, was held on Sunday 11th October at 11.00am. The special guest preacher at this service was The Rev Jack Kinkead, Rector of Wicklow and Killiskey.

Harvest Thanksgiving

At 7.00pm the service was a selection of hymns and readings with a Harvest theme. Refreshments, and apple tarts with fresh cream, were served in the Cathedral Hall afterwards.

Bellringers

On Sunday, 20th September 2026, Loughborough and Derbyshire Bell Ringing Society paid a visit to St Macartin's Cathedral. They rang the Cathedral Bells for approximately one hour and were joined by our own bell ringers. The sound of the bells carried beautifully across the town.

Our Cathedral bell ringers meet every Wednesday evening at 7.00pm and are looking for new recruits (All age groups welcome). If interested please contact Derek Allan or Jim Lucy. (Derek and Jim pictured with Bell Ringers) or the Cathedral Office

Wilde Day, Enniskillen

On 17th October, numerous events took place in Enniskillen to commemorate the life of the poet, writer and humourist Oscar Wilde (16 October 1854 – 30 November 1900), who had been a pupil at the town's Portora School. As part of the celebrations, our choir combined with the one from St. Michaels Church, to deliver a beautiful half-hour concert featuring works, among others, by Henry Francis Lyte (1 June 1793 - 20 November 1847) who had also been a pupil at Portora. His most famous hymns are "Abide With Me" and "Praise My Soul, the King of Heaven", both of which were performed.

Various people in period dress appeared in the town including Lady Bracknell, famous in the play, "The Importance of Being Earnest", for the immortal words, "A handbag?!!" Here, alongside our Vicar, the Rev Dr Edwin Aiken, is the good lady herself, portrayed by one of our senior choristers, Claire Holmes, who later delivered monologues in Fermanagh Cottage Industries, as well as singing with the choir in the same attire!

Community Carol Service

St Macartin's Cathedral to Host Special Community Carol Service
Everyone is warmly invited to a special Community Carol Service at St Macartin's Cathedral, Enniskillen, on Friday 11 December at 7.00pm.
Supported by The Royal Foundation of The Prince and Princess of Wales in association with The Fermanagh Lieutenancy, the service forms part of an annual tradition held in a different location across Northern Ireland each year. This year, it is Fermanagh's turn to host the regional celebration.
The service will celebrate the many individuals, volunteers and organisations whose acts of service, kindness and compassion make a difference in the lives of others and help strengthen the bonds that connect communities across our county. Bringing people together from different churches, traditions and backgrounds, the event reflects the shared values that unite us, particularly at Christmas.
The evening will feature traditional Christmas carols, seasonal readings and performances from talented local musicians and groups, alongside a few festive Fermanagh touches.
Dean Kenny Hall said:
"At Christmas we are reminded of the importance of community and of caring for one another. This special service is an opportunity to recognise and celebrate those whose generosity, compassion and service enrich the lives of others throughout the year. Through their kindness and dedication, they help strengthen the bonds that connect communities across our county. We look forward to welcoming people from right across Fermanagh for an evening of music, reflection and celebration."
Admission is free and everyone is warmly welcome. As seating is limited, those wishing to attend are encouraged to arrive early.
The service will be followed by seasonal refreshments in the Cathedral Hall, with everyone invited to stay afterwards and enjoy some festive hospitality.

Psalm 101

The psalm opens with the psalmist singing praise to the Lord, particularly celebrating God's justice and love. The psalmist then makes a promise to 'live a blameless life'. What is interesting is that as soon as this bold promise is made, he asks, in the same verse, in the same breath '—when will you come to me?' The psalmist realises that such a promise can only be kept, or be attempted to be kept, with help from God. The psalmist acknowledges his own human frailty despite his best intentions. He makes a valid point; we need not struggle to do God's will by ourselves but rather lean on Him to be at work in our lives. Living a Christian life is something we can also do together as a church family; upholding each other, listening, comforting and gently challenging each other to become our best selves. The psalmist promises to 'conduct the affairs of my house with a blameless heart' and this reminds us that we can always show God's love in our own homes and like the psalmist, to have 'no part in' injustice. The psalm reminds us that we are continually asked, with God's help, to make a choice and to take the path of love and forgiveness in a world that is full of strife.

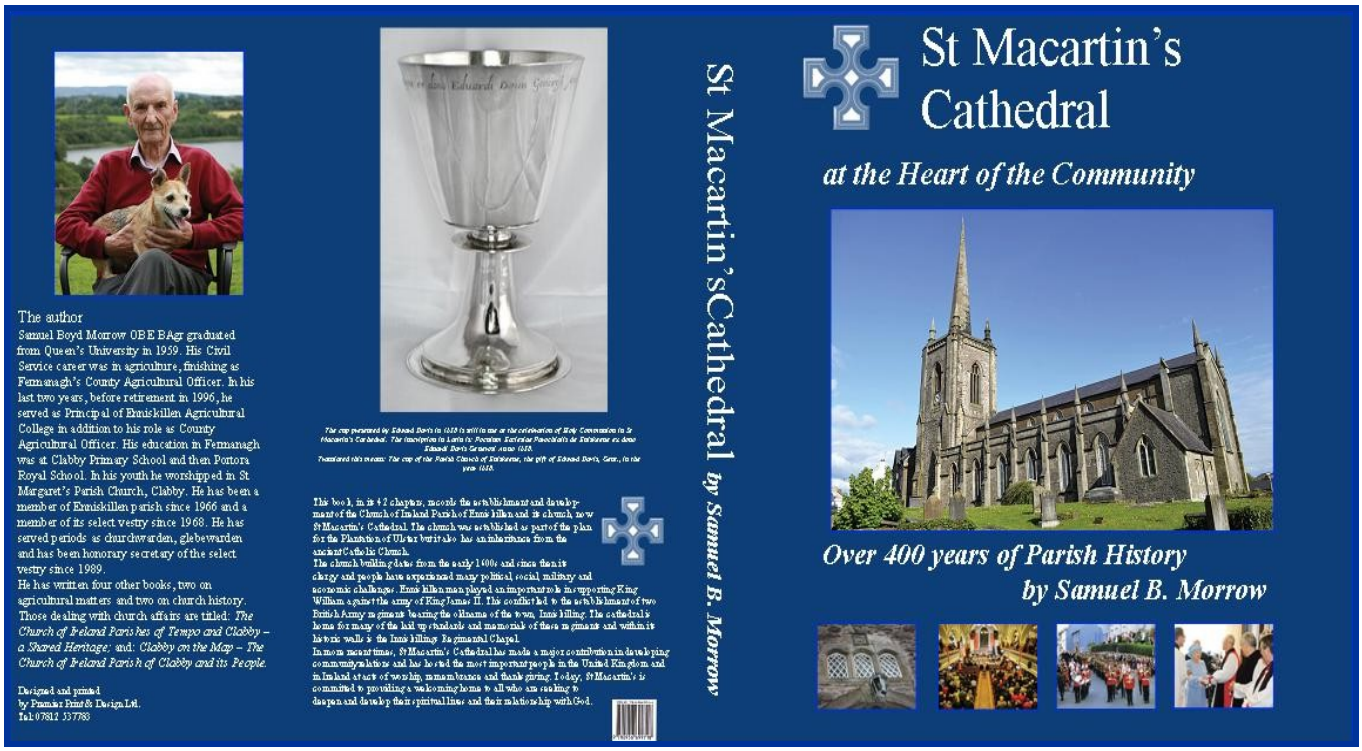

Supper at Six

'Supper at Six' is a monthly meal in the Cathedral Hall, which is open for all. You are welcome to make an anonymous voluntary contribution, but are under no obligation to do so. To book your place for the next meal on Thursday 26th November, please fill in the slip on the information flyer available in this Cathedral News and return it by 19th November. Places will be allocated on a first come, first served basis.

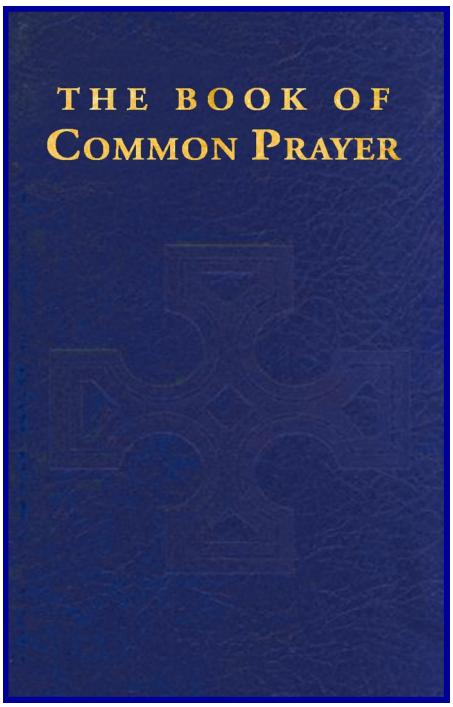

400th Anniversary Year - Cathedral History Book

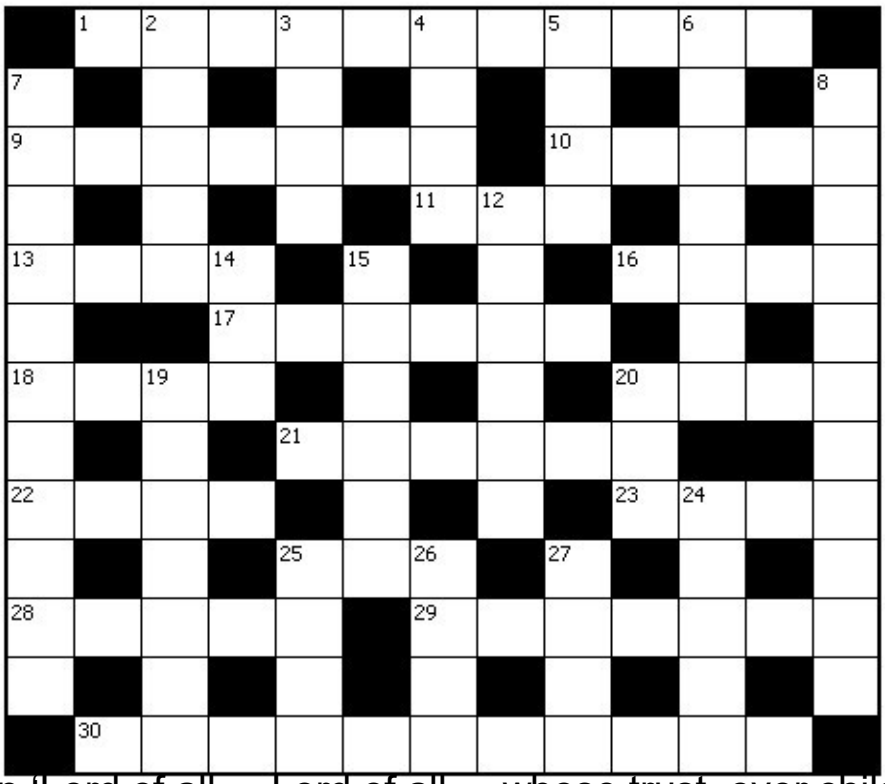

A number of St Macartin's 400 Years of Parish History by Samuel B Morrow are still available at the launch price of £20.00. These would make ideal gifts for family members and friends, especially those who were baptised, confirmed or married in the Cathedral, and for those who have had relatives buried from the cathedral. Copies are available from the Parish Office, the Deanery or from the Churchwardens.

Prayer Books

Do you have a Prayer book in your home? If not you should have! We are a Prayer Book church and the Prayer Book should not just be on those shelves at the back of the church for use on Sunday, but there should be a copy of a Prayer Book in every home. Everything in it is biblically based and it is a vital tool to everyday living, for daily prayer, and for nourishment and for enriching our daily walk with God. As you leaf through the Prayer Book you will find services and prayers for daily use, and for every situation and worry in life. It is a marvellous resource so use it. Copies are available from the Cathedral Office for £20.00 and would make an ideal gift!

Parish Visitations

The Clergy and the Diocesan Pastoral Assistant are continually making visits around the parish, but these are often prioritised by sickness and bereavement calls. As we have now well over 600 families emergency calls are quite numerous. Sometimes we are not in the right place at the right time and that is where you can help. If for some reason you are ill, have been ill or bereaved, please let us know by contacting the Cathedral Office and someone will call with you. No contact may well result in no visit through no fault of the clergy! If you or a member of your family is in hospital please inform us otherwise we may not know. Help us to help you!

Youth and Children's Ministry

Sunday Lights and Café

Sunday Lights and Café, at which we use interactive and creative forms of teaching to help the children learn about the Christian faith (telling Bible stories, discussion, songs, games, and crafts) continues on Sunday, 1st, 15th, 22nd and 29th November. The children leave during the 11.00am service, after the singing of a family hymn, for their own activities, and will attend and take part in monthly Family Services. Sunday Lights is open to anyone in P1-4, and Sunday Café welcomes children in P5-Year 8.

Confirmation

Confirmation classes will begin shortly after Christmas for young people of Year 9 and above. Those who expect to be confirmed should regularly attend services with their families. Confirmation is about taking your place within the life and mission of the Church. Application forms for Confirmation are available in the Parish Office for those who wish to be confirmed. Please collect and return them as soon as possible. Confirmation will be held on Sunday 28th February at 11.00am.

Parenting Wellness Group - Meets Saturdays once per month.
On Saturday 7th November 2026 at 2.00pm in The Cathedral Hall, parents will enjoy a 'Reiki Infused Crystal Sound Therapy' session followed by tea, coffee and treats. Participants will need a thick yoga mat. Take a little time for you and step away from the busy hustle and bustle of everyday family life. This relaxing and nurturing session offers parents the opportunity to pause, breathe and simply be, while experiencing the beautiful vibrations of crystal singing bowls combined with Reiki energy. For more information or to book your place, contact Linda on 07342045474.

Forming Faith at St Macartin's

Calling & Culture

All are welcome to join Rev'd Edwin as together we journey through a wide-ranging series of discussions in the story of how Christian contemplation has both caressed and collided with contemporary culture. Our studies will include topics such as the Psalms, Italian church architecture, Greek mythical heroes, and the surprising links between Moana and the prophet Jonah. Meetings will continue on Tuesday 3rd November at 7.30pm in the Hilliard Room.

Shoebox Appeal

Operation Christmas Child began in the UK in 1990, a tangible message of hope for children in the toughest of circumstances. Every year since, Samaritan's Purse has collected shoebox gifts filled with toys, school supplies, and hygiene items for children around the world. Since 1990, more than 178 million children in more than 150 countries have received an Operation Christmas Child shoebox. The project delivers not only the joy of what, for many kids, is their first gift ever, but also gives them a tangible expression of God's love.
Get an empty medium sized shoebox, and wrap the box and lid separately in colourful wrapping paper or order preprinted shoeboxes online. Attach the appropriate boy/girl label, marking if your gift is for a boy or a girl. Select an age category 2-4, 5-9 or 10-14 and attach the label to the top of your shoebox. Fill your shoebox with a selection of fun toys, hygiene items and school supplies. If possible, include one or two special items you know a child will love such as a doll, cuddly toy or deflated football with pump. A suggested donation of £5 is essential to cover project costs, including shipping, to enable a local church or group overseas to lead a safe, well-organised children's event where your shoebox will be given to a child in need. Leaflets and boxes are available in the church porch. You can collect these on a Sunday or Thursday morning. All shoe boxes need to be returned at the latest on Sunday 15th November.

Parish Organisations

Mothers' Union

Our meeting was held on Monday 12th October in the Cathedral Hall with nearly 50 attending. Rev Maureen Desborough was our speaker, Maureen showed us clothing from the mid 1900's. It was most interesting and sparked some memories!!

We enjoyed apple tart & cream for supper served by Margaret & Valerie T.

9th November is our next meeting. Riverdale Essence with Leah, home-made candles, wax melts & soap. Leah will have a selection of her beautiful homemade gifts with her for sale so bring cash if you would like to pick up a gift or want to treat yourself. Everyone is welcome.

Parish Organisations

Tuesday Club

The season commenced on Tuesday 29th September. Leader Valerie Watson welcomed all in attendance. The Rev Edwin continued with prayer, remembering our faithful member Libby who recently passed away and who will be greatly missed from the group. Lettie Coulter, guest speaker, discussed and demonstrated lots of different ways to wear our scarves, this was enjoyed by all. Prue thanked Lettie for sharing the scarf art with us. Tea was served and members were able to enjoy fellowship with each other. The next meeting is on Tuesday 27th October at 2.00pm in the Hilliard Room with Linda Thompson speaking about 'scams'. Then on 24th November we will have Christmas Crafts with Margaret Burleigh.
We meet at 2.00pm in the Hilliard room. Transport is available for anyone who needs it, just let one of the club organisers know. All are welcome.

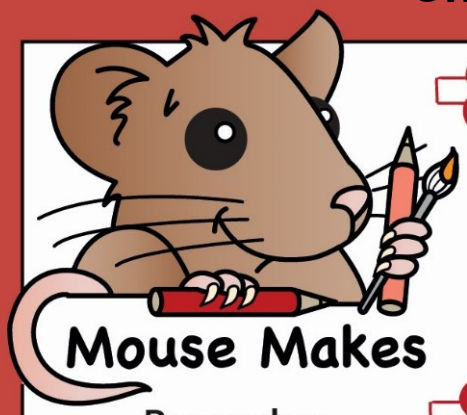

Bible Reading Notes

Each Sunday all three readings from the Revised Common Lectionary are printed on a Parish Bulletin. The Psalm and Collect are also listed. Make sure you get this sheet each week (if for some reason you are not out – get someone to take one for you). Please keep it and use one of the readings or psalm each day throughout the week in your private prayers.
Copies of Our Daily Bread (Bible Reading Notes) are available free of charge at the back of the church. Please take one and you will find an order form included so that you can order them and have them sent directly by post to your own home. These will make the reading of the Bible easy, enjoyable, interesting and relevant to every day life.
