The Dean Writes:

Dear Parishioners,

In this edition of the Cathedral News you will see all sorts of experiences in church life – baptisms, marriages, funerals, ordinations, call to ordination, our Curate appointed as a Rector, opportunities to join or attend organisations, welcome extended for parishioners to connect or reconnect to church and welcome opportunities for those who have no church or spiritual home! This is good, for the life of a parish should be dynamic, continuously changing, growing or developing characterized by energy or effective action - If it is not developing it is dying! Thank God our Cathedral Church is alive and vibrant but each and everyone needs to make sure we keep the momentum up and further extend our growth!

We all experience the seasons of life or the changes that occur in our own time, whether we enjoy them or not. We love some of the changes and we can dread other changes. For example, we love the season of laughing or times of joy, but on the other hand, we do not enjoy the seasons of weeping. I'm sure you and your family have experienced the changes that make you rejoice and the changes that bring you sorrow. The important thing to remember is that God is with us in all those experiences. That is not the case for everyone and very often God is only brought into the equation in time of need – sickness or death. That should not be and we should celebrate his presence with every moment of every day!

People and their lifestyles are continually changing and not all for the better for the Christian Church. There are many families living in the Enniskillen area who now have no church connections – children are not being baptised, they have civil marriages, and non-religious funerals. If God has become less relevant in peoples' lives where is the hope for the future? And I'm not just thinking of their future in this world but their future in the next world! This is a growing trend, and everyone needs to be on the alert not to fall victim to growing secularism!

We need to be faithful to God and show that faithfulness in our everyday lives and be regular attenders (if able) at church. Stay connected, connect or reconnect but do not disconnect! A Sunday or two missed at church, leads to three or four missed, and in turn leads on to months missed, and finally to years, and at that stage reconnections are hard to make – then secularism wins!

With the ministry we offer in St Macartin's Cathedral no one should feel judged by their circumstance or feel 'left out in the cold' – we are open and available to welcome everyone regardless of situation or circumstance! Please make this widely known and invite people you know to church. Read the piece about St Andrew on page 20. The challenge for every parishioner this Autumn is; Can they be a 'little Andrew' in St Macartin's Cathedral?

Andrew is a wonderful example of what it is like to be a Christian. Let us all quietly introduce others to life in the Cathedral in the hope that they too will be followers of Christ!

Yours very sincerely,

Kenneth R J Hall

Rev Chris says Farewell

All curates know they have a limited term, but it's hard to believe that our three years are up already. I will never forget my ordination service, the first time I experienced the full worship experience in the Cathedral. Here, I celebrated Holy Communion for the first time, and my first baptism (Noah).

In one sense, it is a terrible place to be a curate – you get spoilt! Not every church has someone like Beth, who manages to do so much, always with a smile. It is only when Andy is away for a few days that you realize how much he does behind the scenes. Our pastoral assistant Will is an indispensable help, and I've never known such a cohesive and effective Select Vestry. As I say, I've been spoilt!

I have learned to appreciate the incredible work done by volunteers in the Cathedral. I worked out one time that around 60 people were involved in some way in our 11 o'clock service, from setting up, music, welcome, the collection, the minibus and much, much more. And that's just on a Sunday morning! The Cathedral community is a well-oiled machine with many indispensable parts. What a great place to get wide experience of ministry – Men's Life, Pilgrim, Tuesday Club, ... I can honestly say that I have never in three years woken up and wished I didn't have to go to work!

A highlight of my time with you has been the wonderful music. During particularly busy seasons like Advent and Lent, the beautiful choral music has given me such a lift. Glenn, Jane and Choir, you are truly inspirational to many, many people and I will really miss you.

I've had a lot of fun with children and young people. Messy Church has gone from strength to strength, and I have no doubt that it will continue to do so after I leave, because there are such creative, supportive leaders on the team. I am always so impressed at the level of support from Mothers' Union, too, and very grateful. Messy Church is hard work, and MU have always lifted a lot of the burden by doing all the organizing of food and drink. Likewise, I am so impressed by the Sunday Lights team, who work so hard and show such commitment and initiative. Laura and Sophie Richmond are so good and so natural with our young people that it can only be described as a gift.

The people of Fermanagh have great faith. I have often come away from pastoral visits in your homes, or in the hospital, feeling that you have ministered to me! Thank you for receiving me and for the privilege of sharing in your lives in all the ups and downs. When I first arrived, working my way along the Communion rail was about remembering the right words and not dropping anything. Over the months and years, it came to be about recognizing you, knowing what is going on at home and feeling joy at the fact that Christ is ministering to us at His Holy Table.

Finally (and he won't like me saying this, so I hope he doesn't edit this out), thank you to the Dean. When you're looking for a curacy, the advice you're given is not 'location, location, location' but 'incumbent, incumbent, incumbent'. The Dean is an excellent training rector, although I needed roller skates to keep up! He is a prolific visitor, a courageous risk-taker, and a man of great vision. I feel very privileged to have been his curate.

It has been a very happy chapter in our family life, and while we are excited to embark on a new adventure in Castlerock and Dunboe, we will be very sad when the removal van arrives. Sarah and Noah will want to join me in saying thank you for a wonderful three years. If you're on the North Coast, do drop by. With love, prayers and every blessing,

Rev Chris, Sarah and Noah

'What a friend we have in Jesus'

Joseph Scriven died on August 10, 1886. His tale would hardly seem to warrant a page in church history were it not for one fact: he is the man who wrote a hymn that must rank among the ten best-known and most-beloved of all time. That hymn is "What a friend we have in Jesus." Joseph needed a friend in his troubles. Born in Banbridge on 10th September 1819, his prospects seemed favourable. He was educated at Trinity College, Dublin and engaged to be married. Then tragedy struck. His fiancé drowned on the evening before their wedding. This was the first of many misfortunes that led him to consecrate his life and property to Christ's service. He had strained relations with his family and this may have been the reason he emigrated to Canada, where he taught and tutored to make his living.

Again he became engaged, to Eliza Roche. Once again tragedy struck. Shortly before the couple were to marry, the girl became ill and died. One can hardly estimate Joseph's shock and depression. His own sorrows seemed to make him more aware of the suffering of the poor and weak and he attempted to live out the Sermon on the Mount, giving or lending to anyone who asked and sympathizing with all who were more unfortunate than himself. He sawed wood for the stoves of the physically handicapped and comforted the poor and mentally distressed. Joseph wrote his famous hymn in 1855 to comfort his mother who still lived in Ireland. He did not seek to be noticed for it, and his authorship was only discovered by accident shortly before his death. Ira Sankey added a tune to the words.

*What a Friend we have in Jesus, all our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry everything to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit, O what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry everything to God in prayer.*

On Sunday 15th September, the bicentenary of his birth, many churches in Ireland and further afield will sing 'What a friend we have in Jesus.' Exhibitions will be held in Banbridge Library from 8th -15th September as well as a Community Service in Holy Trinity Church at 6.30pm on Sunday 15th September to honour the memory of the celebrated famous son of Banbridge.

Enniskillen Memorial - Fund Raising night - A Big Sing!

St Michael's Roman Catholic Church Choir along with the Methodist Church Choir and the Presbyterian Church Choir will join with St Macartin's Cathedral Choir in 'Big Sing' on Sunday 29th September at 7.00pm in St Macartin's Cathedral for a fund raising night. As churches together we would like the community to gather together to raise money to assist in completing this project. This successful agreed outcome has produced a plan which integrates the existing memorial into a larger memorial which will visually connect the War Memorial to the Enniskillen Memorial. It will be a very fitting tribute to those who lost their lives. Target for the project £15,000.

Welcome to the PrayGround

Boys and girls, come out to pray,
We're happy to see you in church today!

The PrayGround is NOT there to keep little ones out of earshot! We love having babies and toddlers in the service with us. We honestly don't mind a bit of noise – in fact, 'if there's nobody crying, the church is dying!' The PrayGround is there to make it as easy as possible for families with small children to attend church together.

Feel free to come and go as you need. You can follow the service over the speaker, and make it to Holy Communion.

For children too young to attend Sunday Lights, or occasional little visitors not registered for Sunday Lights, activity bags are available from the porch on your way in. They contain colouring, reading and other materials to keep younger members occupied.

Forming Faith at St Macartin's

Pilgrim is our adult formation group. It is a relaxed, café-style night where we can get to know each other a bit better and explore our Christian faith. Some Pilgrim members like to speak a lot, and some prefer to sip coffee and listen. Some are reasonably sure about things and others are still thinking. The format is open and welcoming, and every opinion is respected. There is space for people at all stages of their Christian journey.

Meets twice a month and will begin after the Harvest - more details next month.

The Dean

On Thursday 10th October we resume our new Men's Life group. Our hope is to regularly bring together all the men of the parish for an evening of fellowship, activities, and guest speaker. We are delighted that the Dean has agreed to come and speak at our first event this season, a Men's Harvest Supper, and we look forward to hearing about his life and his faith.

Admission is free, but as we need to confirm numbers for supper, you are asked to reserve a place in advance by contacting Gordon Jackson, Karl Saunders, or put your name on the list in the Cathedral porch.

Messy Church is exactly as its name suggests. It's Church, so we meet together and worship God through Bible stories and songs. And it's Messy! There's always glue and glitter, food and fun.

Messy Church is open to all children of primary school age and their parents or guardians. The rule is: no child without an adult, and no adult without a child.

Now that we're in a new school year, we are looking forward to meeting new friends! So even if you've never been before, even if you or your children aren't parishioners of the Cathedral, you are very welcome to join us!

Xplore is a relaxed, café-style venue for young people in Years 10-12. We want the young people of St Macartin's to feel they belong to the wider church family, to know that they are valued, and to have a safe space to ask questions about faith as a teenager and young adult. We meet in the Upper Room (youth wing) of the Cathedral Halls.

Upcoming events ...

Monday 23rd September – Class Reunion! 7.30-9.00pm

A get-together for all young people who were confirmed earlier this year or last year, and friends in Years 10-12. Come and catch up with old friends and new over pizza, with all the usual fun and games!

Monday 28th October – From Darkness into Light 7.30-9.00pm

Lots of scary things happen around this time of year. Did you know that at your baptism, your parents and godparents promised to reject the devil and all evil things? But what does the Bible say about ghosts and witches and other things that go bump in the night? What do Christians believe, and what can or should we do at Halloween?

Wrap up warm for a torch-lit walk around the Cathedral and the town, some scary stories, fun Halloween games and messy activities.

Monday 25th November – Movie Night 7.30-9.00pm

Monday 16th December – Christmas Party 7.30-9.00pm

Confirmation

A Confirmation service will be held in the spring of 2020 for young people of school year 9 and above. Those who expect to be confirmed should regularly attend church with their families. There is no logical sense in being confirmed if you are not a regular attendee at church! Application forms for Confirmation are available in the Parish Office for those who wish to be confirmed. Please collect and return them as soon as possible.

Educated at Portora Royal
School and former member of St Macartin's Cathedral Choir.

Tell us about your family?

I am married to Elise, 30, originally from Laventie, France and the Dean took part in our wedding in France. We have one daughter, Emma, who is 2, and Charlie who is just a few weeks old.

Former job before entering ministry?

Maths teacher.

Why did you decide to get ordained?

I believe that God decided I should get ordained. I became aware of this calling when I saw the great difference that simple acts could make. I saw the sterling work of reconciliation by The Very Rev Kenny Hall and Monsignor Peter O'Reilly when they held a joint Carol Service between the Church of Ireland Cathedral in Enniskillen and the Roman Catholic Chapel just across the road. The congregation sang four carols in one church, walked across the road singing Away in a Manger, and four carols in the other church. As the congregation crossed the road, they were in tears, because they never thought they'd see the day come when such a thing would happen! May we never doubt the force of simple actions that are empowered by Almighty God.

What's been the best thing about your training?

Studying theology. I have been able to love the Lord our God with significantly more of my heart, soul, strength and mind during training because of the way training works at St Mellitus.

Cathedral Family

What's the most important thing you have learned?

That Jesus Christ is Lord.

Name the most influential person in your Christian life to date and, briefly, say why.

My parents because they prayed for me in the womb, baptised me when I was 6-weeks old and taught me to love God as I grew up. I am so blessed to have been showered with the love of God from the time that I was in the womb until now.

Say something about your future role and how you hope to serve:

I will go where God takes me and do what I believe I hear God telling me to do. I anticipate this will be around Christian welcome and unity.

How would you express your own vision for the church?

The Church is the creature of God, created by Word and Spirit. Although appearing broken in this age, the Church realises its true shape in God, who is One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic. The Church comes into existence by attending to the Word and Spirit through word and sacrament, then bringing something of the vision of Revelation 7:9 -10 to earth.

'After this I looked, and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands. And they cried out in a loud voice: "Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the

The cup presented by Edward Davis in 1638 is still in use at the celebration of Holy Communion in St Macartin's Cathedral. The inscription in Latin is: Pociorem Ecclesiam Parochialis de Eniskenne ex dono Edwardi Davis Generalis Anno 1638. Translated this means: The cup of the Parish Church of Eniskenne, the gift of Edward Davis, Gent., in the year 1638.

This book, in its 42 chapters, records the establishment and development of the Church of Ireland Parish of Enniskillen and its church, now St Macartin's Cathedral. The church was established as part of the plan for the Plantation of Ulster but it also has an inheritance from the ancient Catholic Church. The church building dates from the early 1600s and since then its clergy and people have experienced many political, social, military and economic challenges. Enniskillen men played an important role in supporting King William against the army of King James II. This conflict led to the establishment of two British Army regiments bearing the old name of the town, Inniskilling. The cathedral is home for many of the laid up standards and memorials of these regiments and within its historic walls is the Inniskillings Regimental Chapel. In more recent times, St Macartin's Cathedral has made a major contribution in developing community relations and has hosted the most important people in the United Kingdom and in Ireland at acts of worship, remembrance and thanksgiving. Today, St Macartin's is committed to providing a welcoming home to all who are seeking to deepen and develop their spiritual lives and their relationship with God.

Hospital Visiting

If you or a member of your family are admitted to any hospital including the South West Acute Hospital, and you would like a visit can you please inform the Cathedral Office or a member of the clergy. Do not rely on the hospital system to inform the clergy as this may not happen. The clergy may well be on the same ward visiting other parishioners and not be aware of a parishioner in another room!

Parish Visiting

Can you help us? The Clergy and Diocesan Pastoral Assistant are always around the Parish making visits but they might not be in the right place at the right time. If you are unwell, feeling neglected or just lonely please ring the Cathedral Office and one of the clergy will be delighted to call. If you know someone who would value a Clerical visit or if a parishioner has had a close bereavement please also inform the office. It is not recommended that you tell one of the clergy at the Cathedral door on a Sunday morning as there is every chance they could forget in the midst of shaking hands with 300 people! A written note handed to them is a safer option.

HOME VISITS

Parish Boat Trip

Sail around the town on the Kestrel followed by a meal in the Killyhevlin Hotel on Wednesday 18th September. The Kestrel will leave the Killyhevlin Jetty at 5.00pm for a short trip, calling at Avril & Ivan Kee's for refreshments, returning to the Killyhevlin for a three course meal, all for only £25 per person. Numbers are limited. Please book in the Cathedral Office, sign the form in the Cathedral porch or contact Ivan Kee on 07768000167. Thanks to Stephen Nixon for his generosity in making this trip possible once again.

Psalm 22

Many readers of Psalm 22 struggle to hear its opening verse without the dreadful echo of Jesus' cry from the cross also ringing in their ears: 'My God, my God why have you forsaken me?' It is a cry laden with desolation and hopelessness and one that many of us will relate to at the very worst times in our lives. It is important, though, as we read this psalm not to stop at verse 1. The opening verse begins with despair and bleakness, but the psalm does not remain there. One of its key features is that it goes on to look backwards at all God has done in the past ('On you was I cast ever since I was born; you are my God even from my mother's womb', v. 10) and forwards to all God will do in the future ('The poor shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek the Lord shall praise him', v.26). When we are sucked down into the pits of misery, we can feel profoundly cut off not just from friends, family and God but also from happier times in our lives. Psalm 22 reminds us powerfully that, no matter how we might feel, the God who has always loved us never changes. This God has always loved us and will never stop. Even when we are sucked down into the darkest pit of despair God is there with us.

'Be not far from me, O Lord, you are my strength; hasten to help me.
(Psalm 22:19)

Parochial Organisations

Choir Practice

Choir practice takes place each Wednesday evening in the Cathedral commencing at 7.30pm. Practices will resume on Wednesday 4th September following the summer recess. New choir members are most welcome, currently tenor or bass singers would be particularly encouraged to consider joining. Please contact Glenn or Jayne.

Bell Ringers

Fewer than a dozen parish churches in Northern Ireland have towers with peals of eight or more bells where campanologists can exercise their skill. Enniskillen is one of these, and the peal of ten bells is rung in changes each Sunday and on special occasions. Practice takes place Thursdays 7.00-8.00pm and new ringers will be warmly welcomed to send out the call to worship!

Parish Visitation

Over the Summer months many homes in the parish were visited and received the new pack with the registration forms enclosed. If you have not already received these forms contact the Parish Office and we can arrange for these to be sent out to you. It is important that everyone who wants to be connected to St Macartin's Cathedral is fully and legally registered to meet the new Data Protection regulations, and your permission to hold the same.

If for some reason you have not returned the forms please do so as soon as possible. All the data collected will be collated this month. We hope to take a snapshot of the parish in 2019 and use the information we collect to plan how best we can further the Kingdom of God in Enniskillen over the next years. Any offer of help will be valued and appreciated, and the generosity of Saint Macartin's parishioners is never taken for granted and many give freely and willingly to God's work.

Welcome back!

I realise that people lose touch with church and with God in their lives for a multitude of different reasons and that it is sometimes difficult, as time goes on, to re-establish those connections. I hope in some way this visitation will be an opportunity for you to take the first steps in reawakening your relationship with God. You can be assured of a warm welcome in St Macartin's at any time and also of a caring pastoral response in time of need, regardless of the situation or circumstance!

Join or Rejoin?

(If anyone wishes to join or rejoin the Cathedral Parish now is the time to do it! Please ask them to call into the Cathedral Office or why don't you collect the necessary forms for them from the Cathedral Office. I would make a guess that every family knows at least one other family who don't belong to any church! Get them connected – be a like Saint Andrew – see below:

Saint Andrew

Saint Andrew only gets a short mention in scripture. Upon meeting Jesus, he immediately goes to his brother Simon Peter to tell him that he has found the Messiah. After introducing his brother, the future rock on which Christ used to build his church, Andrew sinks into the background. Even the few mentions Andrew gets afterward are almost always in reference to his brother. But instead of going on an emotive rant about his superior sibling, Andrew simply takes his place among the other Apostles, following Jesus and spreading the Gospel. Indeed, if Andrew had constantly compared himself with Peter, he might have become unthankful for his own gifts and ended up looking on his brother with envy or disdain.

Andrew is a wonderful example of what it is like to be a Christian. Let us all quietly introduce others to life in the Cathedral in hope that they too will be followers of Christ!

This is very simple but can be very effective!
